BALLOON VOYAGE ACROSS ATLANTIC ENDS IN DISASTER

ATHLETICS WIN SECOND 9 TO 3

Chance's Cubs Out Hit and Out Played by Connie Mack's Fast Champs.

BROWN BLOWS UP IN THE SEVENTH

Cubs Opened Battle With a Bid for Victory, But Were Outclassed by Athletics.

Shibe Park, Philadelphia, Oct. 18.—The Athletic champions of the American league again defeated the Chicago Cubs, champions of the National league, winning today's game by a one-sided score, in a contest that was a battle up to the seventh inning.

The final score was 9 to 3.

In that period of the game the Athletics fell upon the mighty Mordecai Browne and hammered him for a total of six runs.

Coombs kept his club out of danger all the way.

This gives two games to the Athletics and has raised hopes here to a pitch of confidence nothing can now discount.

The teams letve tonight for Chicago, where the next game will bep layed.

The weather is like a day in June.

At 2 o'clock the umpires called "Play ball! Play ball!" and the second contest was on.

Batteries: Coombs and Thomas for the Athletics; Brown and Kling for the Cubs.

First Inning.

Chicago—Sheckard, first man up, was given his base on balls. Sheckard was forced at second, Collins to Barry, Schulte's grounder. Hofman was sent to first on balls and Captain Chance came to the plate. Both Schulte and Hofman advanced a base on Chance's grounder, which was too hot for Baker to handle. With the bases full Zimmerman came to the plate. On the latter's sacrifice fly to Strunke, Schulte scored. Steinfeldt struck out. One run.

Philadelphia—Strunke, the head of the Athletic batting list, struck out. Kling missed third strike, but got the runner at first. Lord was tossed out, Steinfeldt to Chance. Collins played a single to right center and Baker, who did such good hitting in yesterday's game, came up. Collins stole second. Baker was thrown out, Brown to Chance. Side out. No runs.

Second Inning.

Tinker was safe at first on Davis' error, Baker making a perfect throw. Tinker was doubled up with Kling on the latter's line drive to Collins, Brown was tossed out, Collins to Davis. No runs.

Philadelphia—Captain Davis lifted a long fly to Hofman. Murphy took first base on four pitched balls. Barry forced Murphy at second, Tinker and Chance completing a double play. No runs.

Third Inning.

Chicago—Sheckard was given a base on balls for the second time. Schulte was safe at first, Davis dropping Coombs' pretty throw. Hofman was out on a pop fly to Davis on an attempted sacrifice. Schulte was given a sacrifice hit on Davis' error. Chance struck out. Zimmerman ended the inning on a line drive to Lord. No

ELKS MAY ARRANGE MAY FESTIVAL NEXT YEAR

Negotiate for Purchase of Floats for Use in Big Pageant.

If the Retail Merchants' association, the Commercial club and other business of the city give encouragement to the proposition, Fort Wayne lodge of Elks will have a big May festival in connection with the state convention of the Elks to be held in this city next year.

Committees were named at a meeting of the Elks Monday evening, with Frank E. Bougher at the head of the executive committee, and conferences will be held with the Commercial club and the Retail Merchants regarding the advisability of the undertaking. The Mystic Shrine officers have indicated a willingness to sell the floats used in the recent pageant to the Elks and if a suitable building can be secured in which to store them, the purchase will probably be made. They will then be reburnished and used in the May festival pageant.

The reunion of the Elks will extend over two days and while the dates have not yet been definitely fixed, it will probably be held during the last week in May.

THE WEATHER.

Washington, Oct. 18.—Indiana—Increasing cloudiness with showers late tonight or Wednesday; cooler Wednesday afternoon; moderate south winds, becoming variable.

Ohio—Fair tonight; Wednesday increasing cloudiness, with possibly showers in the afternoon or night; moderate variable winds.

Lower Michigan—Increasing cloudiness with showers tonight or Wednesday; cooler Wednesday and in the west portion tonight; moderate south winds tonight, shifting to northwest Wednesday.

Illinois—Unsettled with probably showers late tonight or Wednesday; cooler Wednesday and in northeast portion tonight.

ON SUNDAY MEET; ON MONDAY MARRY AT BLUFFTON

Mrs. Elizabeth Aschbaucher and George Davison of New Jersey Marry.

The marriage in Bluffton on Monday evening of Mrs. Elizabeth Ashbaucher, one of the most prominent and highly regarded women of that city, and Mr. George Davison, a wealthy and well-known banker, of Vineland, N. J., occasioned much surprise there and will both please and interest the many friends of the bride in this city. Rev. Dr. A. K. Zartman, of Grace Reformed church, this city, performed the ceremony. Dr. Zartman was visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Diefenbach, when a telephone message there requested the services of Rev. Diefenbach at a marriage. At the time the various pastors of Bluffton were attending a conference in the country and Dr. Zartman, who has known the bride for may years, willingly consented to officiate. The marriage took place at the home of Mrs. Ashbauch's daughter, Mrs. George J. Tribolet.

Oddly Brought About.

The circumstances attending the acquaintance of the bride and groom savors of the romantic and incidentally illustrates that there's no accounting for the ways of the god of love when he sets out to run things. Within a month a Fort Wayne woman, who at the time was visiting relatives in Vineland, N. J., met Mr. Davison at the home of her hostess. Mr. Davison was a familiar friend of the family and therefore talked rather freely of his personal affairs. During the conversation the Fort Wayne visitor, who desires that her name be kept out of the story, inquired, "Why don't you get married, Mr. Davison?" and as a thought struck her, exclaimed, "See, here is a card of a lovely woman in Bluffton, Ind., who would just suit you. She's a Methodist, too. She sent me her card today with her change of address on it."

Mr. Davison took the card and made a note of the name and address it

THE COLUMBUS OF THE AIR WHO HAS MET WITH DISASTER.

MELVIN VANIMAN CHIEF ENGINEER AND ONE OF THE PROPELLER
WALTER WELLMAN

STORM IN SOUTH IS ALMOST WITHOUT PARALLEL

Tropical Hurricane Beating Upon and Sweeping Over State of Florida.

St. Augustine, Fla., Oct. 18.—The entire business section of St. Augustine is flooded with inrushing sea water today, while the wind and waves are still rising with no indication of when their limit will be reached. The water is pouring over the sea wall from the highest storm tide in sixteen years. It is feared that tonight's tide will be still worse and that it will sweep high over the city.

So far there has been no loss of life and the property damage is confined mainly to the unroofing of a few houses, the tearing down of a few porches and the uprooting of trees, all due to the wind.

Warning Rockets Fired.

All last night rockets were fired in the city to warn the residents of outlying sections of their peril.

This morning found street car traffic tied up, some of the cars standing deep in the water. The prospects were that no trains would be able to arrive or leave the city during the day. By 9 o'clock this morning the wind was blowing sixty miles an hour. The last reports before wires went down south of here along the Florida east coast were that the wind velocity on the exposed keys was terrific.

Scores of persons were driven from their homes today by the rising tide. Several hotels on the water front were flooded in their lower floors. The tide receded slightly about noon, but is due to rise again tonight. Two launches were sunk in the bay, but no lives were lost. The electric power plant was forced to shut down.

LAST WIRE GOES DOWN.

Jacksonville, Fla., Oct. 18.—At 4:20 this morning the Associated Press wire from Jacksonville to Tampa, the last single thread of communication with any point in the storm swept territory south of this place, was severed. At a few minutes past 5 o'clock the local offices of the Western Union reported that the prospects of re-establishing communication this morning appeared slight.

With the entire Florida peninsula south of a line from Tampa on the gulf coast to St. Augustine on the Atlantic cut off from communication of any kind with the outside world since 6 o'clock last night, when a wind velocity varying from 70 to 90 miles an hour was reported, accompanied by ill-boding barometeric changes, the effect of the West Indian hurricane in this vast trucking and fruit growing belt is a matter of conjecture today.

Property Damage Heavy.

That the property damage has been heavy, however, is indicated by the few brief bulletins from the east coast and the extreme southern keys before communication was finally cut off last night. Conservative estimates place the loss to the orange growers alone at one million dollars. Trucking has suffered heavily, the Florida east coast railroad is believed to have sustained many thousands of dollars damage and the property damage along the 300 miles of the Atlantic coast south of St. Augustine probably will surpass that of any hurricane of recent years. It is feared that there has been considerable loss of life. The last message from Key West reported a wind velocity of ninety miles an hour, a barometer reading of 28.80, high seas and water rising to alarming depths in the seas. Shortly after that message was sent the wireless apparatus, the last remaining means of communication,

WHITE RIBBONERS IN WARM DEBATE

Discussion Over Resolution to Endorse Beveridge on Child Labor.

NOT RIGHT ENOUGH ON THE BIG ISSUE

Question is Recommitted and Will Probably Be Smothered.

During the forenoon session today of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Indiana a prolonged and heated debate followed the introduction of a resolution to commend the attitude and course of United States Senator Albert J. Beveridge in regard to child labor.

Applause came with its introduction, but hardly had it subsided when Mrs. Elizabeth Stanley of Liberty, Ind., the vice president of the association and one of the state lecturers of the W. C. T. U., was on her feet with strong words opposing the adoption of the resolution.

"I oppose the resolution," she said, "because I am opposed to this miscellaneous indorsement of politicians and because the attitude and course of Senator Beveridge on the temperance question has not been what it ought to have been and not in harmony with the principles of our associatio."

Heated Argument Follows.

This broadside brought on a heated debate. Delegate after delegate, sometimes three or four being on their feet at the same time, entered into the discussion, some advocating and some opposing the adoption of the resolution.

The friends of Mr. Beveridge urged that he was a man who was growing in his views on reform questions and that eventually he would come around all right. Anyhow, it was better not "to rub these politicians the wrong way." More could be accomplished by conservative methods, it was said.

The outcome was that the resolutions were referred back to a special committee appointed by the president, Mrs. Vayhinger, with Mrs. Stanley as one of the members of the committee, to report later in the day. In that committee, it was thought, the resolutions would die and not be reported to the convention at all.

A Flagrant Insult.

Another feature of interest of the session this morning was the introduction by Mrs. Elizabeth Stanley of the following resolution:

"Resolved, That we appeal, through our governor, Hon. Thomas R. Marshall, to the postoffice department at Washington, D. C., for the exclusion from the United States mails of the publication known as "The People's Press" of Chicago, which paper we consider a flagrant insult to Christianity everywhere, and that a copy of said publication, with a letter signed by the president and secretary of the state W. C. T. U. accompany this appeal."

The resolution was unanimously

BALLOONS SAIL OVER BIG WATER

Gas Bags from St. Louis are Across or Crossing Lake Michigan.

ONE COMES DOWN NEAR RACINE, WIS.

All Appear to Have Been Carried Far to North from St. Louis.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 18.—One balloon, the Million Club, which wa sentered in the international race, landed near Racine, Wis., this morning and three others are crossing or have crossed Lake Michigan. The balloons left here yesterday afternoon between 4 and 5:40 o'clock in a race for the James Gordon Bennett cup and prizes amounting to $4,750.

The Million Club landed with eight bags of ballast in sight of Lake Michigan, the pilot, S. Louis Von Phul, did notthink he had a chance of crossing the water. His balloon bag had many holes, caused by grasshoppers, in it when it went aloft. Von Puhl also lost ballast in avoiding the grand stand at the aerodrome. Only one balloon, the Helvetia, a Swiss entry and winner of the 1908 race from Berlin, had not been seen or identified up to 12 o'clock noon. Four unidentified aerostats passed over Lake Michigan before noon.

The other five balloons have been reported in Illinois and Wisconsin. Aeronauts here are hopeful of records being broken by the balloonists because of the low level they were seen in.

It shows they guarded their ballast carefully during the night.

CAME DOWN AT RACINE.

Racine, Wis., Oct. 18.—Because they had but eight bags of sand left with which to cross Lake Michigan, Tony von Phul, the pilot, and Joe O'Reilley, his aid, landed their balloon, "The Million Population," six miles north of this city at 7:25 this morning. The Million Population reached its highest altitude near Vernon, Ill., during the night when it soared 4,500 feet above the earth. It covered 355 miles, figuring by the air route.

The balloon was brought to this city and the pilots left immediately for St. Louis.

BALLOONS ARE SIGHTED.

Eagle, Wis., Oct. 18.—The balloon Dusseldorf, of Germany, with Lieut. Gericke, pilot, and S. F. Perkins, aid, passed here, going east, at 6:30 a. m. The balloon America II, an American entry, passed above here on the three thousand foot level at 8:10 going east. The pilot is Alan Hawley and the aid Augustus Post.

WELLMAN CREW IS PICKED UP AT SEA

Steamer Trent, Bermuda to New York, Rescues Aerial Voyagers from Water.

AIRSHIP BEATEN FAR FROM COURSE

Winds Carried Her Several Hundred Miles Out, East of North Carolina Coast.

New York, Oct. 18.—A wireless message to the Times from Captain Down, of the Royal Mail steamer Trent says that the Trent picked up Wellman and the crew of the America at 5 o'clock this morning. The airship had been abandoned.

The rescue was made in latitude 35.43, longitude 68.18.

The wireless message received by Sandison & Son, local agents of the Royal Mail steamship packet line, plying between New York and Cuba and Bermuda was signed by Commander Down of the steamer Trent and read as follows:

"At 5 a. m. today sighted Wellman's airship America in distress signals by Morse code that she required assistance and help. After three hours maneuvering and fresh winds blowing got Wellman with entire crew and cat. They were hauled safely aboard. All are well. America was abandoned in latitude 35.43 north, longitude 68.15 west."

Has All Records Likely.

The America has undoubtedly broken all previous records both as to time in air and distance covered.

The previous time record, that of Count Zeppelin, was 37 hours. The America's time up to 8 o'clock this morning would be three full days or 72 hours. The previous distance record was that of Count Zeppelin, 870 miles. The America's distance covered is somewhat conjectural, but it appears to be about equal to that of Zeppelin's.

This brings to a climax one of the most remarkable flights by an airship ever undertaken. That the climax was not accompanied by a tragedy is considered a matter of exceptionally good fortune, as the dirigible had been blown far away from the usual lanes of trans-Atlantic travel and was almost outside the range of the coast steamers plying between ports of the United States, Cuba and South America.

STORY OF THE RESCUE.

On Board Steamship Trent at Sea, Aug. 18.—Via United Wireless to The Associated Press:

At 4:30 a. m. today the steamer Trent sighted the airship America and wireless communication was immediately established. Irwin, the operator on the airship, informed Ginsburg, the operator on the Trent, that the airship America's crew wished to abandon the balloon. Wireless communication was kept from this time on between the airship and the steamer.

Daylight was rapidly approaching and the Trent was requested to follow the America, which was then drifting at the rate of twelve miles an hour. After a council held on the airship it was decided that the best means of rescue was to launch the lifeboat. But this was such a hazardous undertaking that much time elapsed before the maneuver was executed as the tail of the airship, consisting of tanks of gasoline and wooden blocks, threatened to capsize the lifeboat as it was dropped from the balloon into the water.

This danger was at last oversome and the operation was carried out with success. In the operation the trailer struck Wireless Operator Jack Irwin and Louis Loud, the engineer, and also knocked a small hole in the side of the life boat.

Airship Shot Skyward.

The airship immediately on being released of its weight of her crew and boat, shot skyward as the boat shot downward. A moderate sea was running at the time and after some slight difficulty the crew were taken on board at 7:30 a. m.

All the members of the crew are well after a thrilling experience.

Wireless telegraphy has distinguished itself by showing the great assistancein accomplishing the work of rescue.

The Morse lamp signalling also took a great part in the communication between Irwin and officers of the steamer Trent, which gave the signals leadingto the rescue.

The crew was pic kedup in latitude 35:43, north longtitude 62.18 west, where the America was abandoned.

Wellman said that the airship had been blown far out of her course so that it was inadvisable to proceed.

The foregoing is the first story of the thrilling rescue and was sent by wireless direct from the steamer Trent to the Associated Press.

DRIVEN FAR FROM COURSE.

New York, Oct. 18.—The departure was from Atlantic City last Saturday morning. The length of the time that the dirigible remained in the air is still in doubt, but as the rescue occurred early this morning the wreck of the airship was probably last night or within a few hours preceding.

The course taken by the airship up to the time of its rescue shows to what an extent it was the prey of wind and weather. On Sunday morning it was 300 miles northeast of Atlantic City, off the Nantucket lightship. On Monday it must have encountered strong winds from the northward as it was driven 350 miles south, finally bringing up east of the North Carolina coast. Here it was entirely outside of the range of trans-Atlantic steamers going between New York and Boston, Philadelphia and other points to the leading ports of Europe.

Story to Be Told.

The dispatch thus far gives only the essential facts of the rescue from the water, but the preceding struggle in getting from the airship to the water remains to be told.

The reports do not yet disclose how far the lifeboat was utilized in the work of rescue. Whether the occupants of the dirigible saved themselves by floating woodwork or by means of the boat is not yet told.

The total distance covered by the balloon while under control and drifting a prey to the winds appears to have been approximately 850 miles.

The report from Sable island comes from the locality where the Wellman airship was supposed to be today. Sable island is a rocky ledge in the Atlantic 100 miles off the Nova Scotia coast.

Eight o'clock this morning marked three full days since the Wellman airship America sailed from Atlantic City. Noon today marks two days since the last word came from the airship off the fog banks of Nantucket island.

If the airship has been able to maintain her course she will be today off Sable island, about 900 miles from the starting point, exceeding the Zeppelin distance record of 850 miles. Four steamers, the Ivernia, President Grant, Pannonia and the Teutonic reported by wireless to Sable island this morning without information of the dirigible.

A number of other steamers will be in the same locality within the next day or two. The reports from the North Atlantic show clear weather, with a northwest gale prevailing. The hurricane along the southern coast is not expected to have any effect on the North Atlantic for some days, if at all.

Mrs. Wellman Relieved.

Washington, Oct. 18.—When informed by long distance telephone of the news of the rescue of Walter Wellman and his crew, Mrs. Wellman, who was in her home in an Atlantic City hotel, exclaimed, "Thank God for the good news. I am overjoyed to learn that my husband and the brave men with him are safe."

Mrs. Wellman was eager for [illegible] and expressed deep regret [illegible] runs.

Lord, who was on first base, kept on home, as Steinfeldt fumbled Sheckard's pretty throw to third. Steinfeldt was given an error and Sheckard an assist.

Fourth Inning.

Chicago—Steinfeldt lifted a fly to Strunke. Tinker singled to center. Tinker was an easy out, Thomas to Collins, on an attempted steal. Kling struck out. No runs.

Philadelphia—Davis was thrown out at first by Tinker. Murphy lifted a high foul to Chance. Barry singled over second base. On Thomas' single to right Barry took third. Coombs struck out for the second time. No runs.

Fifth Inning.

Chicago—Brown reached first on Coombs' fumble. Coombs made a second fumble and Sheckard was safe at first. Sheckard was credited with a sacrifice. Both runners advanced a base on Schulte's sacrifice to Davis, unassisted. Hofman was given his base on balls and Captain Chance came to the plate with the bases filled. Chance flew out to Murphy and on a beautiful throw to home plate Brown was doubled up, Thomas getting the put out. No runs.

Philadelphia—Strunke struck out on three pitched balls. Lord singled to right and Collins was given a glad hand when he came to the plate. Lord was forced at second, Tinker to Zimmerman, on Collins' grounder. Collins stole second, his second steal of the game. Baker was walked. Collins scored on Davis' single to left, the latter going to second on the throw in. Murphy was thrown out at first by Tinker. One run.

Sixth Inning.

Chicago—Zimmerman was given his base on four straight balls, Coombs being unable to locate the plate. On Steinfeld's fly to Collins Zimmerman was doubled up at first. Tinker sent the ball into the left field crowd for two bases. Kling flew out to Strunke. No runs.

Philadelphia—Barry fanned. Thomas went to first on balls. Thomas went to third on Coombs single to Conner. Strunke struck out for the third time during the game. Lord's high foul was made by Chance. No runs.

Seventh Inning.

Chicago—Brown struck out. Sheckard doubled into the right field crowd. Schulte lifted a high fly to Strunke. Hofman was given his base on balls for thethird time and Captain Chance faced Coombs. Sheckard scored on Chance's single to center, Hofman being held on second. Zimmerman's grounder forced Chance, Collins to Barry. One run.

Philadelphia—Collins was given his base on balls. Baker'ss single to right placed Collins on third. Davis drove the ball into the lef third crowd for two bases, scoring Collins and putting Baker on third. Murphy doubled in the same direction, scoring Baker and Davis. Barry sacrificed, Brown to Chance, placing Murphy on third. Thomas drove a single to left, scoring Murphy. Coombs was out at first by Chance, unassisted. Strunke doubled to right, scoring Thomas. Sheckard muffed Lord's fly and Strunke scored. Lord was out stealing, Kling to Tinker. During the inning the Athletics had made five hits, including three two-baggers. Six runs.

Eighth Inning.

Chicago—Steinfeldt doubled to left. Tinker lifted to Baker. Kling took first on balls. Beaumont was brought to bat for Brown and struck out on four pitched balls. Coombs passed Sheckard. Three men were left on bases when Schulte popped a fly to Collins. No runs.

Philadelphia—Richie now, pitching for Chicago. Collins drove the ball into right field crowd for two bases. Collins took third on Baker's out at first, Chance unassisted. Davis was out at first, Chance unassisted. Murphy was thrown out, Steinfeldt to Chance. No runs.

Ninth Inning.

Chicago—Hofman singled to left. Chance was thrown out at first, Collins to Davis. Zimmerman doubled to left, scoring Hofman. Steinfeldt was an easy out, Barry to first. Tinker was given his base on balls. Kling hit to Barry and the latter stepped on second, forcing Tinker. One run.

Both Teams Fit and Ready.

Refreshed after yesterday's hard battle on the diamond, the two teams were again ready and "fit" for the second struggle at Shibe park for the world's championship. Although the day broke a little hazy, the sun quickly dispelled the fog and the afternoon promises to be fine.

The Chicago National league champions were apparently not downcast by yesterday's defeat. Capt. Chance's men have been through the fire before; they are hard and seasoned campaigners. The leader of the Nationals had no excuse to offer for yesterday's result. He gives the great Bender all the credit due him for his masterful pitching and praised the high-class playing ability of the Philadelphia team.

The Chicago players are confident of victory today. "It was a one-man game yesterday," said one of the players, "but it won't be today."

At Shibe park there was the same confident talk. The Philadelphia leaguers when into yesterday's game with the determination to "get the jump" on their rivals and hold the advantage to the end.

Expect Tradition to Stand.

There is a baseball tradition that the team which wins the first game taken the series. Having won the first, the Americans believe that history will repeat itself. Connie Mack's men think the two pitchers sent in by Chicago yesterday are the best that Capt. Chance has to offer and they feel confident they will have no more trouble with Brown, Reulbach and others than they had with Overall. Capt. Davis' men, however, have a wholesome respect for McIntyre, who stopped their rush around the bases yesterday and they expect McIntyre will pitch against them in one of the games at Chicago.

It is expected that the batteries today will be Mordecai Brown and Kling for Chicago and Coombs and Thomas for Philadelphia. Mr. Mack at the last minute may send in Plank. All the twirlers are in grand form and another splendid game is lookekd for by the fans.

A crowd fully as large as yesterday is expected to witness the second game. The bleacherites began to assemble at 5 o'clock this morning.

Crowd Early at Gates.

Five o'clock this morning at the field gates and four hours later a double line extended half way around the grounds.

It has been arranged to present before the game starts today the automobiles won by "Ty" Cobb and Napoleon Lajoie. Cobb is in Philadelphia writing articles of the world's series and will personally receive his car and in the event of Lajoie not getting here his machine will be accepted for him by Ban Johnson. The batting order for today probably will be as follows:

Chicago—Sheckard, lf.; Shulte, rf.; Hofman, cf.; Chance, 1b.; Zimmerman, 2b.; Steinfeldt, 3b.; Tinker, ss.; Kling, c.; Brown, p.

Philadelphia—Strunke, cf.; Lord, lf.; Collins, 2b.; Baker, 3b.; Davis, 1b.; Murphy, rf.; Barry, ss.; Thomas, c.; Coombs or Plank, p.

Umpires—O'Day and Rigler, National league; Sheridan and Connolly, American league.

Arrange for Chicago Trip.

The national commission held a session today and arranged for the transportation of the baseball contingent to Chicago. The teams will leave here at 8:55 o'clock tonight in two sections and will be due in Chicago tomorrow afternoon between 1 and 2 o'clock.

The first section will carry the American league champions and party, Presidents Johnson and Lynch of the two major leagues and the eastern newspaper men. The National league champions will travel on the second section accompanied by Garry Hermann, president of the national commission, and party and western newspaper men.

Arrangements have also been made for quick traveling between the two cities in case games are necessary on Saturday and Sunday. The teams will leave Chicago in the same two sections at 5:25 p. m. Friday, arriving here about 11 a. m. Saturday, and will leave here at 5:25 p. m. the same day and get into Chicago about 11 a. m. Sunday.

Automobiles Presented.

The presentation of the automobiles to the two top notch batters of the American league afforded the crowd the only chance to cheer before the umpire called play ball. Both machines were run to the home plate and "Ty" Cobb was called from the stand and formally presented with one of the automobiles. The one for Lajoie was accepted for him by a friend in his absence. Cobb drove his machine around the field and was given a rousing reception by the crowd, which by this time had filled the stands and outfield.

Ban Johnson, president of the American league, issued a statement in which he declared that Cobb and Mullin, of the Detroit team, had notified him today that they had no further connection with Fletcher, the promotor of the so-called All Star team and that they will return their respective checks. Mr. Johnson further stated that Mathewson, Lajoie, Mitchell, Walsh, Devlin and other notable ball players who were interested by Fletcher, had decided not to join the All Star movement.

OFFICIALS DID NOT UNFOLD ANY OF DETAILS

Had Hoped for Settlement of Elevation Question—The City Hall.

General Manager G. L. Peck and General Superintendent A. M. Schoyer, of the Pennsylvania company, left the city at noon after a brief stay and they were a bit disappointed that the track elevation agreement submitted at a meeting last night between Superintendent J. B. McKim and the city officials was not ratified.

They stated to the members of the board of public works that there was nothing for them to do, as no settlement of the minor points that are holding up the work had been arrived at and until this has been done they have nothing to offer. If they were here to consider the depot question they did not say so and were probably not in a position to discuss what the company anticipates and will not be so long as the council committee insists upon a width of 70 feet under the tracks at new Webster street.

Nothing was done at the meeting last night. Members Braun, Felger, Wagner, Van Sweringen and Welch insisted that the street be made 70 feet and the discussion never got beyond this point. They hold that the traffic from the two streets to be closed will find its way to Webster street when it is opened and that the 70 feet is necessary and did not seem to take into account that four subways will be built to take care of the traffic that formerly passed over three grade crossings.

The conference lasted until 11 o'clock last night without any agreement. Mr. McKim explained that the company had bought the property for its terminals without asking a subsidy of the city, that it expected to invest a big sum in a depot and that the point contested for is trivial compared to the concessions that will be made to offset it. This apparently had no effect upon the solons. Wednesday afternoon there will be a meeting at the tracks to consider the proposition further with the hope that it will be ready for submission to the council on next Tuesday night.

A width of 60 feet under the tracks will allow for ten-foot sidewalks and a roadway which will allow four vehicles to travel abreast.

After Garbage Men.

For four days health officers in plain clothes have been stalking the garbage collectors of the city and there will be some affidavits filed as a result because the complaint of the property owners that these collectors are responsible for scattering garbage in the alleys is well founded.

This will apply not only to the men who are under contract with the city, but to private vehicles which gather the offal from the hotels, saloons and boarding houses. As soon as the ordinance now before the council providing for covered and water-tight receptacles is passed more drastic measures will be adopted.

informed that the America had been abandoned. Shipping men here say the Trent left Bermuda yesterday and must have been 400 or 500 miles south of Sandy Hook when the Wellman party was encountered.

TAFT AUTHORIZES ASSISTANCE.

New York, Oct. 18.—President Taft sent a telegram from Ellis Island to the navy department in Washington today giving the department authority to act in the Wellman matter. The president asked that inquiry be made as to the situation and that whatever assistance was necessary be rendered.

Officials here consider the rescue of Wellman and his crew in the vicinity where they were picked up by the Trent as a most fortunate circumstance. Few steamers traverse that part of the ocean, the only regular ones being two vessels which maintain a weekly service between New York and Bermuda. With the approach to that vicinity of the West Indian hurricane, now on its way up the coast, the six men composing the America's crew would have been in dire peril.

LINER HAS NO WORD.

New York, Oct. 18.—The Kronprinz Wilhelm from Bremen came in today with the report that she had seen or heard nothing of Walter Wellman's dirigible balloon America along the trans-Atlantic steamer lane. In the absence of definite word from the America this morning it could only be assumed that she was still pursuing her flight.

bore. That caused a smile to ripple over the faces of the company, as he was then a widower of 14 years' time and had long been considered unapproachable in a matrimonial direction. A fortnight passed and the Fort Wayne visitor returned home, wholly unaware of what would be a result of her casual question and remarks. So imagine her astonishment when last Saturday she received a visit from Mrs. Ashbaucher, who said that she had heard from Mr. Davison, that she liked his letters and that he would be here the next day. Sure enough on Sunday Mr. Davison arrived in this city and after calling at the home of the woman who had so unwittingly brought the meeting about, left for Bluffton, where, after putting up at the Bliss house, he proceeded to the Tribolet home to meet Mrs. Ashbaucher. Matters progressed rapidly after the first exchange of greetings. The widow, who is a good-looking and attractive woman and has traveled extensively, declared that no one she had seen in years so fulfilled her ideals as Mr. Davison. Mr. Davison was no less pronounced in his admiration of Mrs. Ashbaucher. The liking, or love, both felt it to be, was mutual. There was no reason for delay, so there was none. Mr. Davison is 70 years of age, but looks much younger, and his bride is considerably past 50. Both are wealthy, have social prestige and are citizens in their respective cities of prominence and the highest standing.

Mrs. Ashbaucher is a member of the Order of the Eastern Star. For several years she has been superintendent of the M. E. Sunday school and her activity in religious work has in no way suffered from her popularity in the social world of Bluffton. She is altogether a charming woman.

Tomorrow Mr. and Mrs. Davison will arrive here for a couple of hours' visit before they proceed to Thousand Isles, Toronto, Niagara and other eastern points on their way to Vineland.

WOOD WASTE IN PAPER.

Washington, Oct. 18.—Over 4,000,000 cords of wood were used in the manufacture of wood pulp for paper-making in the United States in 1909, as shown by the annual report of the industry issued today by the census bureau. The cost of the transformation of the wood, of which there were 4,002,000 cords, was $34,478,900. This was an increase of about 650,000 cords over the consumption of 1908, but of only about 39,000 over 1907. The advancing cost of pulp wood of all species is clearly brought out in the report:

Bleeding Gums

When your gums bleed and are sensitive, it is the warning of Riggs Disease, and unless cared for at once the teeth will get loose and fall out.

There is only one home treatment known for this condition—Call's Anti-Riggs, used instead of the ordinary dentifrice. This quickly relieves the painful and dangerous infection, makes the gums hard and the teeth firm. Get a 50c bottle from Meyer Bros. Co. or Woodworth Drug Co. and save your teeth firm and sound for a lifetime. Used and endorsed by leading professional people who realize the attraction of perfect teeth.

If you suffer from sore mouth caused by a new plate, Call's Anti-Riggs will give quick relief.

NEWS OF FORT WAYNE'S NEIGHBORS

HAD BEEN SCHOOL TEACHER 34 YEARS

John A. Betzner, Pioneer Instructor in Whitley County, Has Passed Away.

Columbia City, Ind., Oct. 18.—John A. Betzner, a pioneer Whitley county school teacher, is dead at his home in Richland township after an extended illness from hardening of the arteries.

He was born in Columbia township August 8, 1854, and was 54 years, 2 months and 7 days of age at the time of his death. He grew to manhood on the farm and thirty-three years ago last Friday was wedded to Harriet Essig, who survives him. Eleven children were born to them, eight surviving as follows: Mrs. William Parrish, of Richland township; Mrs. Ira Meadows, of Cleveland township; Miss Maze Betzner, of Fort Wayne; Misses Anna, Maud, Mildred and Gertrude Betzner and Fred Betzner at home. Gertrude, the youngest daughter, aged 11 years, is in a hospital at Fort Wayne after a surgical operation. All of the children were at his bedside when death occurred.

A year before his marriage, when he had just attained his majority, he began teaching in the district school, and for thirty-four long years, with the exception of part of one term, he never missed having the youngsters of some neighborhood before him in a school room during the school part of the year. He was considered one of the best teachers in the district schools of the county, and took great pride in his work. Many young men and women who are now grown up with families of their own look back to the days when they were his pupils, and are filled with sorrow over the announcement of his death. His last term was taught at the Wilderness school, in Cleveland township, a year ago last winter.

MEDAL FOR SPILLERS.

Reward for Bravery to Conductor in Kingsland Wreck.

Bluffton, Ind., Oct. 18.—Other employes of the Fort Wayne and Wabash Valley Traction company propose that recognition shall be accorded Conductor Ernst Spillers, the conductor in charge of the northbound local car which was wrecked at Kingsland on September 21st, and who immediately he was extricated from the wreckage instead of thinking only of his own welfare reeled down the track to flag the last limited car which was following his car with another load of people bound for the Fort Wayne fair. His prompt action, in the face of painful injuries and with blood streaming down his face, undoubtedly averted an even worse catastrophe by having the limited car crash into the rear of the already demolished local car. In order that merited recognition shall be accorded Conductor Spillers employes of the company Sunday started a subscription paper, which all are signing freely with amounts ranging from 25 cents to one dollar and the fund thus secured is to be used for the purchase of a handsome gold medal, suitably engraved, which will be presented to Conductor Spillers as a permanent token of recognition of his noble action. Claim Agent Fred Fahlsing heads the list.

Free for Stomach and Bowels

We are in receipt of letters from Mrs. Eva Gaskins, 804 Madison St., Topeka, Kans., and Mr. P. H. Gavellas, Wagoner, Okla., as well as many others, telling about the wonderful results they have secured in the cure of their stomach and liver troubles by the use of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

This remedy, as all readers doubtless know, has been before the public for a generation and is now being more extensively used than any other remedy for stomach, liver and bowel complaints. According to reliable testimony, it seems to be a very quick and lasting cure for constipation, indigestion and dyspepsia, liver trouble, biliousness, headaches, sour stomach, gas on the stomach, drowsiness after eating and similar disorders. It is a liquid with tonic effect, and so mild and gentle in action that a child as well as a grown person can take it, in fact, it has no equal for children, women and old people.

It arouses the flow of gastric juice, and by a peculiar action trains the stomach and bowel muscles to again do their work naturally, and in time medicines of all kinds can be dispensed with. A free sample bottle can be had for trial by sending your address to the doctor, for in this way Mrs. Gaskins, Mr. Gavellas and many others first learned of the cure. Later, when satisfied it is the remedy you need, do as others are doing and buy it of your druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle.

Dr. Caldwell does not feel that the purchase of his remedy ends his obligation. He has specialized in stomach, liver and bowel diseases for over forty years and will be pleased to give the reader any advice on the subject free of charge. All are welcome to write him. Whether for the medical advice or the free sample address him Dr. W. B. Caldwell, [illegible] Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

INSANE SLAYER NOW PENNILESS

The Last of John Terrell's Small Fortune of $20,000 Has Been Spent.

Bluffton, Ind., Oct. 18.—John W. Terrell, convicted and committed to prison for life for the murder of his son-in-law, Melvin Wolfe, but later removed to an insane asylum from which he was released about a year ago, is now penniless, according to the showing made in court at Bluffton Saturday by Pleasant H. Stanley, guardian, who made his final report and asked Judge Sturgis to be dismissed.

The last of Terrell's fortune of about $20,000 is gone, the guardian's report showing that the remaining $850 has been paid out in court costs, attorney fees and other expenses. Members of the Terrell family are caring for the insane murderer and Stanley says there is no longer need of his services.

The famous Terrell murder is still fresh in the public mind. Terrell, a wealthy and influential farmer, killed Melvin Wolfe in 1902 for an alleged insult to his daughter, Lucy Terrell Wolfe, wife of his victim. Driving past the Terrell home, where his wife was staying, Wolfe, seeing her out in the yard, made taunting remarks which angered the woman's father. Terrell fired at him with a shotgun. Wolfe drove to a country village to have a doctor dress his injuries and Terrell followed, blowing off his victim's head while he lay on an operating table.

BISH GOT "IN RIGHT."

Grant County Man New Millionaire in Oklahoma.

Marion, Ind., Oct. 18.—O. M. Bish, for twenty years a school teacher of Franklin township, is one of Grant county's citizens who "got in right" in the west. He has already cleared up a small fortune in the increased value of real estate which he bought when the price was low, and is in position to clean up, from his present holdings, a sum of money that will run up well toward the million mark.

Seven years ago Mr. Bish forsook school teaching and went to Oklahoma, then a territory, and adjoining the city of Oklahoma, purchased 100 acres of land for $3,000. Oklahoma City grew and extended its limits beyond the land owned by Mr. Bish. In the spring of 1909 he sold eighty acres, half of his holdings, for $10,000, and in March of the present year he sold forty acres, one-half of his remaining land, for $30,000, and on September 30 this land was turned over to the state of Oklahoma as the location for the new state capitol building to be erected at a cost of $1,500,000.

HURRIED TO HOSPITAL.

Young Farmer Near Van Wert Suffers Frightful Injuries.

Van Wert, O., Oct. 18.—Glenn Beck, a well-known young farmer of Union township, was severely injured Sunday at the home of his father, D. F. Beck, north of the city, and it was necessary to hurry him to the St. Joseph hospital at Fort Wayne, in charge of Dr. A. T. Rank, of Cavett, in order to save his life. He was taking two horses to the water trough, riding one and leading the other, when the animals were frightened and he was thrown to the ground with the result that a wound five inches in depth was cut in his abdomen. On his arrival at the hospital he was immediately operated upon, resulting in the fortunate information that no organ or intestine had been puctured, and though the wound is of a very serious nature it is very probable that Mr. Beck will recover. He was greatly weakened by the loss of blood. He is 25 years of age and married.

SCALPED HER DAUGHTER.

Warsaw Mother Inflicts Injury by Unusual Accident.

Warsaw, Ind., Oct. 18.—Intending to cut away a portion of her daughter's hair in order to extricate a clock spring which had become entangled there, Mrs. Jerome Mabie, of Rigdon's Row, accidentally scalped the little girl. The accident happened on Saturday afternoon. A piece of skin about an inch and a half long and fully an inch wide was cut out and it was necessary for the attending physician to graft this same skin on the wound.

Mrs. Mabie used shears and intended to cut only as much hair as was necessary to remove the tightly entangled clock spring. In doing this she pulled on the hair and raised the scalp so that when she thought she was cutting the hair close to the head she was in reality cutting out a large piece of skin. The injury was very painful.

BLOCKADED

Every Household in Fort Wayne Shoud Know How to Resist It.

The back aches because the kidneys are blockaded.

Help the kidneys with their work.

The back will ache no more.

Lots of proof that Doan's Kidney Pills do this.

It's the best proof, for it comes from Fort Wayne.

Mrs. Laura Caseldine, 301 W. Superior St., Fort Wayne, Ind., says: "I do not hesitate to give the credit of my present good health to Doan's Kidney Pills. It would be almost impossible to fully describe the misery I endured from kidney complaint. My back was in such bad shape that at times I had to take to my bed and I often got up in the morning feeling all tired out. For several years I suffered in that way and found no relief until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills. The contents of five boxes of this remedy restored me to good health and drove all symptoms of kidney complaint from my system."

LIGONIER MAN VICTIM.

Charles Crupshaw Killed Near Port Clinton, Ohio.

Ligonier, Ind., Oct. 18.—Charles Crupshaw, of this city, 35 years of age, was one of the five victims of a Lake Shore railroad bridge gang who were run down and killed by a train at Port Clinton, O. The men were walking across a railroad bridge ad a dense fog prevented them from seeing the approach of the train.

COMES TO SECOND TRIAL.

Auburn, Ind., Oct. 18.—A suit was brought here Monday from Noble county on a change of venue in which Peter Dolan, administrator for the John McKee estate, at Avilla, is seeking to recover $1,000 life insurance from the Prudential. McKee died in the Arlington hotel at Findlay, Ohio, four years ago and the question of suicide was raised, hence the company refused to pay the face of the policy. A jury at Albion found for Dolan in 1907, but by an appeal to the appellate court the insurance company got a reversal on an order for a new trial.

NO TRACE OF THIEVES.

Churubusco, Ind., Oct. 18.—Postoffice Inspector J. N. Hunter, of Fort Wayne, reached the city Monday and began an inventory of the office to determine precisely the amount of the loot secured by cracksmen who blew the office safe early Saturday morning. There is no clew to the thieves. A report that a handcar and a quantity of stamps had been found at a point near Avilla proved to be unfouded.

PROGRESS ON OIL WELL.

Angola, Ind., Oct. 18.—Workmen on the oil well north of Angola are down nearly three hundred feet and most of the way they have worked through fine sand and gravel. At one point about 100 feet down the workmen struck a vein of water with pressure enough to carry the water out of the pipe [illegible] feet above ground.

SETTLE CLAIM FOR $850.

Hartford City, Oct. 18.—For the sum of $850 the Fort Wayne and Wabash Valley Traction company yesterday settled the damage claim growing out of the death of Joseph Edens, of Montpelier, who was killed in the Kingsland wreck. In all eleven or twelve claims have been settled by the company, $4,000 being the highest single sum paid.

NAME TOWNSHIP TICKET.

Kendallville, Ind., Oct. 18.—The democrats of Wayne township have nominated the following ticket: For justices of the peace, Lewis P. Merkling and Jonas Hutchins; for constables, Daniel Roush and John Bushong; for advisory board, Albert D. Sawyer, Homer A. Barker and George D. Leighty.

YOUNG HUNTERS LICENSED.

Warsaw, Ind., Oct. 18.—The youngest hunters in Kosciusko county up to date are Harry Kintzel, Atwood, aged 15, and Clarence Bonewitz, aged 15, Leesburg. Both procured permits from County Clerk C. Edwin Stout Saturday. Kintzel gave his weight as 100 pounds and his height at four feet.

TWO DEATHS FROM TYPHOID.

Auburn, Ind., Oct. 18.—Two deaths occurred in Auburn Sunday from typhoid fever. The victims were Dennis J. White, a dairyman, and Mrs. P. W. Guyton.

SPEAKS AT HUNTINGTON.

Judge Taylor Substitutes for James R. Garfield.

Judge Robert S. Taylor was summoned to Huntington at noon Monday to deliver a political address in place of James R. Garfield, who was unable to reach Indiana for the opening address of his tour of this state. Judge Taylor spoke during the afternoon at the Huntington theater.

Attorney W. S. Gandy, of Churubusco, was in the city on business Monday.

THE IOWA SITUATION.

The death of Senator Jonathan P. Dolliver can hardly fail to give added complexity to the republican situation in Iowa. The most recent test of strength between the regular and the progressive factions of the party disclosed possession by the latter of a rather narrow margin of advantage. Senator Cummins, a magnificent fighter and a man of signal abilities as a leader, remains, but to be deprived in this crisis of such a head as Senator Dolliver can mean only loss. In the case of Cummins there is strong embodiment of the progressive principle, whereas in the case of Dolliver there was embodied the same militant idea united with a personality that fulfilled the popular notion of a leader. He had to an eminent degree the devotion of a people who held him in affectionate regard. Senator Cummins is equal to entire responsibility of leadership, but there now arises to complicate the situation a question of maintaining in the senate that complete representation of Iowa progressiveness which the state enjoyed in both Cummins and the late senator. Dolliver had grown to be a tower of strength to the militant spirit of progressiveness, not only in Iowa, but in the country at large. His death reopens in Iowa a battle that had seemed to be won. There will be, unless signs are misleading, a sharp contest for his vacant seat and that the regulars, who are strong enough to make a formidable bid for it, will attempt to give themselves representation in Washington is quite certain. There is not apt to be an appointment to the vacancy prior to the November election and the result of the balloting in Iowa will have strong influence in determining the choice of Governor Carroll, who is not a progressive.

MARSHALL THE STRONGEST.

Indiana democratic means more to Indiana democracy than retention of the present delegation of eleven democrats in the national house, the possession of both United States senatorships, control of legislation in the state and capture of the state offices. Indiana democrats this fall will turn the eyes of the national democracy hitherward. There will be thoughtful looking at the man who wheeled the state out of the republican column two years ago and under whose administration the democracy has repeated its victory. Governor Harmon may carry Ohio, but it is almost a foregone conclusion that he could not hold the state in the democratic line as a presidential candidate. Dr. Woodrow Wilson may carry New Jersey as democracy's gubernatorial candidate this fall, but New Jersey has become by ties of interest a republican bulwark. Mayor Gaynor is strong in New York and possibly could hold that state, but he could not develop enough strength in the west to make election probable. Moreover, he will be handicapped by the elements whose support was Judge Parker's weakness. If a democratic president is elected in 1912 he will be chosen without the intervention of New York. Governor Marshall as a presidential candidate can carry Indiana and he can carry every state any other democrat can carry. Indiana democracy can greatly increase its national prestige and place itself in the van of the party for the great struggle two years hence by holding the state in line this fall.

Cures Catarrh
Also Coughs, Colds, Croup and Sore Throat.

Meyer Bros. Co. guarantees HYOMEI (pronounce it High-o-me) to cure catarrh, acute or chronic; to cure colds, coughs, croup and sore throat, or money back.

In cases of deafness caused by catarrh, there is no remedy so efficient.

HYOMEI is a liquid extracted from the eucalyptus trees of Australia, and is a soothing, healing, germ killing antiseptic.

[illegible] HYOMEI [illegible]

A complete HYOMEI outfit consisting of a bottle of HYOMEI and an indestructible hard rubber pocket inhaler costs $1.00. For treating catarrh or any throat or nose ailment, pour a few drops into the inhaler and breathe.

That's all you have to do, and as the air passes through the inhaler it becomes impregnated with antiseptic HYOMEI, and this soothing, healing air as it passes into the lungs reaches every particle of the inflamed membrane, kills the germs and heals the raw, sore catarrhal spots.

If you now own a HYOMEI inhaler you can buy an extra bottle of HYOMEI for only 50 cents at Meyer Bros. Co. or druggists everywhere.

Mr. Bryan has just indicated in one of his Indiana speeches that he will not be a candidate for the presidency in 1912. Should think not. Turn and turn about between him and everybody else is about as much as the Lincoln colonel ought to expect. This diversion of thought from what the Athletics and the Cubs are doing reminds us that the Sagamore Hill colonel hasn't given any intimation whatever.

William Randolph Hearst after a prolonged period of deliberation finds he cannot stand a party bossed by Roosevelt and Root any more than he can tolerate a combination of Dix and Murphy. Therefore and consequently, he will support the Hearst Independence League ticket of which he is the sub-head. Willyum Randolph is a good picker.

Mr. Rockefeller up to date has given in benefactions to the country $125,000,000. This amount, some large as it is, is about equal to Mr. Rockefeller's income for two years and as he has been twenty years giving it it will be understood that your thrifty Uncle John hasn't let the giving game get the best of him.

Vermont is electing a United States senator today, but while that staid commonwealth displayed some weak signs of unrest in the late election nothing is happening in the legislative chambers at Montpelier to give vested interests undue alarm.

The eternal balance is on the job all right. What we didn't get that was coming to us out of the general meterological consignments of last spring is coming with this glorious fall delivery.

President Taft has returned to Washington to remain indefinitely. That is the way President Taft has always remained in Washington.

It is satisfactorily evident at the very least that Mr. Wellman has gone somewhere in his balloon.

Cincinnati, Oct. 18.—This is St. Luke's day and the sessions of the general conference of the Protestant Episcopal church was expected to be of great interest, especially to the women attending. The Women's Auxiliary Girls' Friendly society were on the program to hold a study class and to open a question box.

The house of bishops and the house of deputies were on the program to hold morning an dafternoon sessions.

SENATOR PAGE RE-ELECTED.

Montpelier, Vt., Oct. 18.—United States Senator Carroll S. Page, Vermont's junior senator, was practically unopposed for re-election when the state senate and house of representatives met today to vote in selection of his successor. The democrats had nominated no candidate to oppose him and it was thought he might be accorded the unusual honor of an unanimouse election. The two houses will meet in joint convention to submit their respective votes and declare their official selection.

Captain Nellie Fields, who has charge of the slum work for the Salvation Army in New York city, was in the city Saturday and Sunday visiting her sister, Miss Elva Fields. Captain Fields is on a furlough, and has been visiting her home near Geneva and will return to New York in two weeks.

Starting tonight the Salvation Army will resume their week night meetings in the Salvation Army citadel, on East Washington street. The meetings will be held Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays until the first of the year, and if the attendance is favorable it may be decided to hold them every night from then on. The street meetings will be continued as usual.

NEGLECT OF THE EYES.

Many a woman who takes great care of her diamonds lets her eyes take care of themselves, so often to their lasting injury. Seldom, too, are the eyes of young people watched as they should be. Headaches, which may and often do mean eye strain, are put down to liver trouble or indigestion, and home remedies are administered for these ailments when what is really needed is a visit to the oculist. And going to an optician merely is not enough, since his business is to suit the eye with glasses only—which they may or may not need. The aculist suits the treatment to the eye, and it is better to err on the side of going to him without reason than to stay away when there may be need to go.

Considering the delicate mechanism of the eye, it is astonishing how much abuse it bears. Women go about peering through veils of heavy and intricate patterns, most harmful to the vision. Both men and women read constantly in street cars, than which nothing is worse. Children are allowed to read in insufficient light and in the gloaming. And seldom indeed does anyone take care, when reading or working, to be in the right position with regard to the light.—New York Tribune.

FINDS NEGLECT ON THE PART OF VAN DINE

Motorman Shares Criticism in Verdict of Coroner Kesler.

Motorman Charles VanDine, in charge of the northbound car in the Kingsland trolley wreck, is charged with neglect in the verdict of Coroner Kesler filed Monday afternoon in the cases of the wreck victims whose death occurred in Fort Wayne. The criticism of the coroner is that apparently neither motorman made an effort to stop the cars when it was realized that a collision was inevitable, and presumably they were too terror-stricken to act.

Coroner Kesler's verdict holds Conductor Wilson and Motorman Corkwell directly blamable for the catastrophe for their failure to observe running rules. "I find," says the verdict of the coroner, "that Harold Nelson, Dan Dubach, John Johnson, Fred Jones, C. M. Brown, Margaret Tribolet and Amos Ellenberger came to their deaths by reason of injuries received in collision between train No. 56, northbound, and extra No. 303, southbound, at a point about one-half mile north of Kingsland on the Bluffton division of the Fort Wayne & Wabash Valley Traction company. I further find that said collision was caused by negligence on the part of Conductor Del Wilson and Motorman B. T. Corkwell of extra No. 303, in failing to obey the rules of the company to clear the time of train No. 56 and not stopping at siding No. 105 or No. 106 for said No. 56. I still further find from viewing the wreck and surroundings that from the distance around the curve south of the place of collision and the straight track north of the place of collision that it was possible for each motorman if he had been looking ahead to see the approaching car at least three-fourths of a mile away, giving the motorman on each car sufficient time to stop or at least slacken the speed of the cars by proper appliances sufficient to avoid a great loss of life. I therefore find neglect on the part of Motormen VanDine and Corkwell in not at least making an effort to stop these cars and thus avoid the collision."

No previous finding in the accident has attached any blame to Motorman VanDine, and he is back upon his regular run on the trolley system.

Waves Over Sea Wall at St. Augustine.

The last message from St. Augustine reported the waves rushing over the sea wall, endangering property in water front, while the marshes for miles around were already inundated. The wind was increasing and the barometer falling. Similar reports came from Fort Pierce and Titusville before communication failed.

Early this morning the wind grew less violent here and shifted from northeast to east, indicating that the storm would cross the Peninsula about 100 miles south of Jacksonville.

Many miles of the Florida east coast railroad were under water last night, serious washouts had occurred and traffic over most of the line has been abandoned. For miles this road actually bridges vast stretches of the ocean with massive concrete archse and although forewarned, fears are entertained for the working crews employes on the lower extension. Railroad traffic on all lines south of Jacksonville has practically been abandoned. The telegraph companies report practically all wires down south of this place and it may be several days before communication is established with the storm-swept country.

FREE SPEECH DENIED.

Fresno, Cal., Oct. 18.—The second night of the so-called "free speech" campaign inaugurated by the Industrial Workers of the World brought eight arrests in the business section last evening. A free-for-all fight occurred when the officers appeared on the scene of the speech-making. Twenty-one arrests have been made thus far. In the jail the prisoners raised a disturbance by singing and shouting, but were quieted when a hose was turned upon them.

IN THE CHURCHES

BIG FESTIVAL OPENS.

Successful Event Is Inaugurated at Library Hall.

With a fine program and a large attendance that promises unqualified success for the big event, the fall festival for the benefit of the new St. Andrews' Catholic church opened Monday evening at Library hall.

The large auditorium is prettily decorated, and the many booths are both unique and attractive, the floral booth forming the central figure in the collection, in charge of A. J. Lanternier.

The candy booth is in charge of the married ladies. Mrs. Joseph Hagemann is chairman and assistants are Mesdames John McNulty, William Smith, Edward Keefe. A postoffice station has been established here for the mailing of souvenir postcards.

Edward O'Connor is in charge of the doll booth and those assisting are the Misses Bertha Didier, Rose and Molly Goodman, Apolania Mattis and Marie Fenker.

The refreshment booth is in charge of Chales Matthew. Here one may obtain all sorts of soft drinks served in great style by the Messrs. Joseph Sararzen, Frank Hoevel and Michael Myers.

The needlework booth is in charge of the young ladies of the parish, the Misses Henrietta Boyle, Nettie Meehan, Catherine Hoevel, Mary Hunt and Henrietta Schrage. Messrs. Joseph Mattis and Benjamin Hoevel are in charge of the contest for the gold watch.

Presiding over the ice cream and eating tables are Mrs. John Myers, Mrs. John Boyle, Mrs. Christian Hoevel, Mrs. Rudolph Fenker and the Misses Bernadine and Frances Hoevel.

The large stein booth is conducted by the Knights of Columbus, who purchased and donated one thousand steins for the festival. Henry Sax presides. Miller's orchestra will be present each evening. Wednesday night a literary and musical program will be rendered.

Fresh Air in Winter

In winter, it is hard to get fresh air in certain rooms. Some rooms in a house are usually colder than others, and if you open the windows it is hard again to heat the room properly.

If you keep the windows closed you don't get fresh air; if you keep them open you cannot quickly reheat the room. The solves the difficulty. You can leave the windows in a room open all day in winter, and when you close them apply a match to a Perfection Oil Heater and heat the room to any temperature you desire in a few minutes.

The Perfection Oil Heater is finished in japan or nickel. It burns for nine hours. It has a cool handle and a damper top. It has an automatic-locking flame spreader, which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back so that the wick can be quickly cleaned. An indicator always shows amount of oil in the font

The filler-cap does not need to be screwed down. It is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached to the font by a chain.

The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, because of a new device in construction, and consequently, it can always be easily unscrewed in an instant for rewicking. The Perfection Oil Heater is strong, durable, well made, built for service, yet light and ornamental.

TWO WATCHES AND A CLOCK IN HIS CLOTHES

Two Men Held Until the Police Can Investigate —City Court.

Two cheap watches and a traveler's clock found on Albert Kaskey, picked up at the Nickel Plate depot early this morning with Clyde Weimer caused the police to ask that the men be held for investigation, and cases of loitering against them were continued.

One of the watches was found by Patrolman Bert Smith at the time of the arrest, but the clock and the other watch were not found until Kaskey was searched this morning during court. All are cheap, but the fellow could not give a satisfactory account of where he got them. Weimer said he had worked in the hotels here as bell hop and elevator man.

Will Fine Them All.

"I will fine every man brought before me for riding his bicycle on the sidewalk. It is dangerous, and even if the streets are not in good condition this is not an excuse." Thus spake Judge Mungovan as he fined Ralph Larimore, 818 Runnion avenue; Paul Frankenstine, 1908 High street, and J. McAneny, 1 Howell street, $1 and costs each. They are knitting mills employes and have been warned. Officers Junk and Madden will be sent out every night until the practice is broken up.

The Other Cases.

Jim Kirke came into town just to be going some place and got drunk. The judge said he wouldd keep him going and gave him eleven days.

Fred Strong, Al Upleger, William Wagner and Andy Schlinker were fined $5 and costs each for drunkenness and John Kelly and Arthur Askey got $1 and costs each.

THE DEATHS.

BLUST.

Mrs. Mary B. Blust, wife of Ignatius Blust, residing at 1121 Broadway, died Monday afternoon at St. Joseph's hospital after an illness of several weeks' duration.

Mrs. Blust was born in Pennsylvania, the family removing to Fort Wayne twenty years ago from Avilla. Surviving relatives include the husband and eight children—Frank, Charles, Ollie, Edward and Ralph Blust, Mrs. F. C. Robbins and the Misses Louise and Gertrude Blust. The mother also survives, together with two brothers and five sisters—Messrs. A. and Joe Riegel, Mrs. Frank Bougher, Mrs. Charles Degitz, Mrs. Frank Hill, Mrs. Peter Litot and Miss Ruth Schmenk. Mrs. Blust was a member of St. Paul's Catholic church.

Funeral services Thursday morning at 9 o'clock from St. Paul's Catholic church.

GARRISON.

Mrs. Rosa L. Garrison, wife of Wilbert Garrison, residing at 1125 Custer avenue, died Monday afternoon from tuberculosis at the age of 35 years. The husband is an employe of the Nickel Plate roundhouse.

Surviving relatives include the husbond and two children in addition to the mother, Mrs. Lockhart, and two sisters, Mrs. Clara Castle and Mrs. Lockhart, all of South Whitley. Mrs. Garrison was a member of the First M. E. church.

Funeral services Wednesday morning at 9:30 o'clock from the residence and at 10:30 o'clock from the First M. E. church; interment at South Whitley.

VAN BUSKIRK.

Linford Van Buskirk, a pioneer citizen of Monroeville, died at his home here Sunday evening at the age of 63 years. He had long been in failing health, but his condition was not regarded as critical until a short time prior to his death.

Mr. Van Buskirk had been a resident of Monroeville since 1849 and was well known and highly esteemed. Four children survive. They are Dr. E. M. Van Buskirk, of Fort Wayne; Otis Van Buskirk, Mrs. Leo Gresley and Mrs. Ethel Laudahn, of Monroeville. Funeral services Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the M. E. church in Monroeville.

ELLERT.

Mrs. Frances Ellert, wife of Benoit Ellert, 54 years of age, died at 10:30 o'clock Tuesday morning at the family home, 1137 Elmwood avenue. Though an invalid for some years, Mrs. Ellert had been bedfast but a week.

She was born in Ohio, came to Fort Wayne in her childhood and was educated in St. Mary's Catholic schools. Her marriage to Mr. Ellert occurred in 1874. The husband and seven children survive. The children are the Misses Augusta and Laura Ellert, Louis A. Ellert, of Cleveland; B. J. Ellert, now in South America, and William R., J. C. and Bernard H. Ellert, of this city. Other relatives include three sisters—Mrs. Theo. Bley, of Fort Wayne; Mrs. Fred Briel, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Miss Jennie Gessler, of Indianapolis, and a brother, Albert F. Gessler, of Indianapolis.

Funeral services Friday morning at 8:30 o'clock from the residence and at 9 o'clock from St. Mary's Catholic church.

FUNERAL NOTICES.

Shoemaker.—Funeral services for Ralph L. Shoemaker will be held Wednesday morning at 8:30 o'clock from the residence, 1516 Fletcher avenue, and at 9 o'clock from St. Mary's Catholic church.

Frank I. Hardy is at Toledo attending a meeting of the Central Traffic association.

WHAT'S DOING IN A POLITICAL WAY

Adams township voters turned out largely last evening to hear Congressman Cline and Attorney Harry F. Hilgemann in addresses at 1819 Wayne trace. Herman Prauger presided as chairman and the speakers were given an enthusiastic reception. Congressman Cline discussed largely his attitude and record on labor issues. Mr. Hilgemann declared that a democratic vote in Indiana this year is an endorsement of Governor Marshall's administration and of the governor for president.

Senator Beveridge, who will deliver the principal republican address of the campaign in Fort Wayne Thursday evening, will arrive in the city over the interurban line at 7 o'clock, and after dinner at the Anthony hotel will speak at Princess rink and later at the overflow meeting at the court house assembly room. City Attorney Hogan will preside at the latter meeting, and Ex-Congressman Fred Landis will speak until the arrival of Senator Beveridge. Judge Heaton will be heard at both meetings. B. Paul Mossman is in general charge of arrangements for the Beveridge meeting.

Notes of the Courts.

A suit in which Ida Beaird is endeavoring to collect $1,000 from Mike Koehler for assault and battery was placed on trial in the superior court before a jury today.

In the superior court Gada Josse was granted a divorce from John E. Josse. The custody of their child was given to one of the orphans' homes and the wife was awarded $300 alimony.

Prosecutor Thomas stated today that he will probably have the grand jury called in for next week as he will have finished the cases that can be disposed of without indictments.

Amelia J. Hamilton was granted a divorce from Robert J. Hamilton on the ground of cruelty and failure to provide.

Dan Thompson, who lives at Payne, O., but who has been working here and stopping at the Rossmore restaurant, stepped off a car backwards at John and Pontiac streets this morning and was thrown to the pavement. He sustained a slight scalp wound and was removed in the police ambulance to Hope hospital.

IN THE THEATERS

UNSEEN DRAMATIC ACTION

Is Big Feature in Success of the American Play, "The Nigger."

Some of the most effective and dramatic incidents on the stage are those that are heard rather than seen. Sardou, in the days when he was turning out "Fedoras" and "La Toscas" with tireless energy, fully grasped the peculiar psychology of a public that, thrilled and awed by the sounds of torture and suffering in the wings, when the same scene, openly depicted before the eyes of an audience, would probably have created derision.

Other French playwrights have successfully utilized the same power of appealing to the hearing instead of the sight to secure their most startling and dramatic effects. This method had not had a great vogue among American playwrights, although it has been customary, except in a few notable melodramatic instances, to have one or more of the characters in a play describe off-stage boat races and horse racing contests for the benefit of the audience. And sometimes this method has been very successful.

Edward Sheldon, the author of "The Nigger," the remarkable race problem play, had apparently reverted to the Sardou method to secure some of his most thrilling effects. The first act of "The Nigger" has a sensational lynching episode, but very few members of the mob are seen, and the lynching is largely an appeal to the imagination. Nevertheless it is a tremendously thrilling and dramatic incident. The cries of the pursuing mob, the baying of the bloodhounds, the sounds of the manhunters in the brush—all reinforced by an actual glimpse of the hunted negro in his efforts to escape—are thrilling in the extreme. The emotions they produce are far keener than if the whole scene was actually presented in plain view on the stage.

Later the negro is delivered over to the leaders of the mob, but the lynching that follows is only suggested. The audience realizes, however, that the culprit is really being lynched and this imaginary fact makes a deep and lasting impression.

Tht "unseen dramatic action" is also a striking feature of the second act, when the audience is made to feel without actually seeing the turbulence and excesses of the mob, and in the final moments of the last act the unseen incidents are brought so vividly to the senses that even the most unimaginative person can see the marching soldiers and the cheering crowds in the streets. It is said that no other American playwright has ever been so successful in utilizing unseen incidents in a drama.

A great deal of interest has been aroused by these effects, and there is much curiosity to know how they are produced. Many of them are simply the results of clever training on the part of the company and the stage attaches. The baying of the hounds, a most realistic effect, was more difficult. It was, of course, inexpedient to actually carry bloodhounds, and, besides, there was no desire to put "The Nigger" in the "Uncle Tom's Cabin" class of plays. Bloodhounds were secured temporarily, however, and confined in a cage immediately in front of a phonograph. The animals were aroused to a high pitch of excitement and then the records were taken. The results are surprising. The deep, angry baying of the hounds and even the illusion of the animals approaching or receding in the distance is reproduced with startling fidelity to the real thing. It would require a southern sheriff to detect the absence of the actual bloodhounds.

"The Nigger" will be one of the biggest shows of the year at the Majestic Thursday night.

Should Tempt Appetite of Convalescent

Attractive Serving of Meal Often Stimulates Patient Who is Not Hungry to Eat.

Once an invalid begins to improve eating to gain strength becomes an important factor. Appetite may be tempted to an extraordinary degree by having all dishes served as temptingly as possible. Spotless linen, china which shines and glass which is unclouded add enormously to the attractiveness of the meal and a patient who is hungry may unconsciously be stimulated to eat.

Above all other points, the most scrupulous cleanliness must be observed, not only in the food, but the dishes and the way the food is placed on them. There should be no spot of sauce on the plate. A "dribbled" effect of food is most unappetizing. On the same basis, if toast is beneath the sauce it should have been buttered on another plate, being then transferred the one on which it is to be served. Otherwise there will be fine crumbs, highly suggestive of carelessness in preparation. One tiny bit of parsley on the food will make it look much daintier.

When an invalid is not strong enough to cut her own food it should be done before the tray is brought to her, but in such a way that it has no suggestion of small pieces. A piece of toast may be buttered and cut into cubes, the bit of meat or fish being then placed on the pieces which are held together. Fish is easily separated by a fork, so that the convalescent may do that herself, but chicken or anything else in the meat line must be cut, taking care that the bits, being pushed together, do not appear "messy."

All food should be covered in transit from kitchen to invalid's room, that it may be hot when eaten.

Never should a tray be served without having on it a linen cover, embroidered or plain. A tiny fresh napkin must apear each time, even if it is washed between meals. One flower, in a tiny vase or glass, will render the meal daintier.

The invalid's more rapid gain of strength, through eating, will be welcome payment for the labor given to making her food tempting.

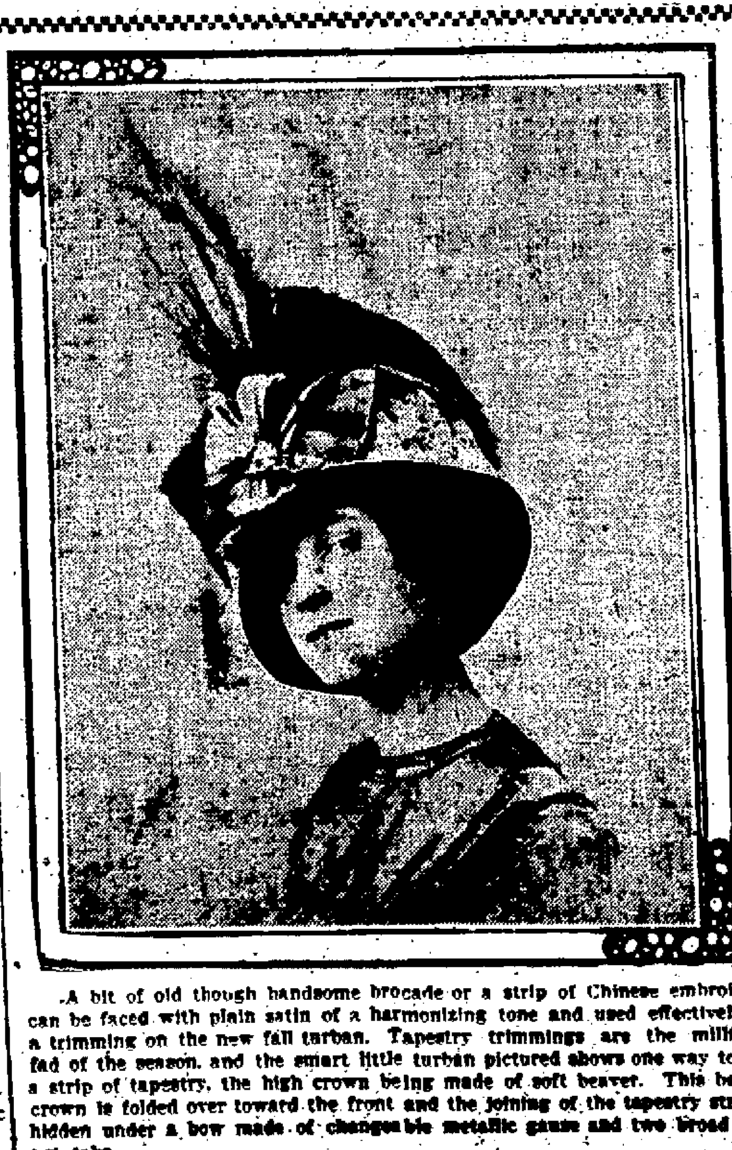
WOMEN DRIVERS TO ENTER RACE

Silver Cups for Women Chauffeurs in Auto Races Saturday.

The skill with which a number of women drive their automobiles in this city has excited admiration from many people who have observed them. The city has a number of careful and coolheaded young women who act as their own chauffeurs so far as driving their cars is concerned, and that fact has led the management of the aviation meet and automobile races to be held next Saturday to arrange two contests for women. Two automobile events for women, with prizes of silver cups, will be a part of Saturday afternoon's programme. The first award will be for the slowest record on high speed without shifting the gears. The second will be an obstacle race, when the contestants, at low speed, will make their way on a track strewn with barrels, boxes and similar obstacles.

All women who desire to enter the events should notify Miss Italia Evans, at 213 West Berry street, before Friday. A number of women who drive autos have already signified their desire to enter the events. They are Miss Evans, Mrs. H. H. Rogers, Miss Irene Malloy, Miss Nellie Henry, Miss Bachelor, Miss Marguerite Wing and Miss Marguerite Niezer.

TAPESTRY TRIMMED TURBAN.



A bit of old though handsome brocade or a strip of Chinese embroidery can be faced with plain satin of a harmonizing tone and used effectively as a trimming on the new fall turban. Tapestry trimmings are the millinery fad of the season, and the smart little turban pictured shows one way to use a strip of tapestry, the high crown being made of soft beaver. This beaver crown is folded over toward the front and the joining of the tapestry strip is hidden under a bow made of changeable metallic gauze and two broad velvet tabs.

Big Chief Bender Used a Big Variety in the Game

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 18.—"I used fast curves, pitched overhand and side arm, fast balls, high and inside, and an underhand fade-away pitched with the hand almost down to the level of the knee. These were my most successful deliveries, although a twisting slow one mixed up with them helped at times," said "Chief" Bender of his performance in the first game of the world's series.

"It was mixing up the pitching, more than what the ball did in the air, that counted in winning. If the pitcher telegraphs his curve, or the batter knows what to expect, then it does not make much difference what is pitched, as they will hit it. Let a batter get set and let him know a curve is coming, or a fast ball, and he will hit. A pitcher is forced to keep thinking what the other fellow is thinking and must keep trying to cross him.

"I think my best ball was my fast overhand curve when it was pitched low, although I had great success with a fast side arm curve ball. When I have my right speed as I did yesterday with my arm feeling strong I prefer my fast ball pitched high and on the inside corner of the plate, and I found it effective. I think that the curve ball, if it breaks sharply, is the most effective ball pitched and I never yet have seen a batter who could hit that kind of pitching all the time. Of course they will hit anything a fellow pitches sometimes, but fast high pitching across a man's shoulders and a fast breaking curve ball will trouble any batter, no matter how good he may be, and I soon found this was worrying the Cubs.

"About all the pitching I ever had done before I went to Carlisle was throwing stones at squirrels and partridges. I had played baseball a little, and lacrosse a little, but when I went to Carlisle I began to like baseball. Besides, we had a lot of loyalty to the team and I wanted to play for the school. I began to pitch, and the more I pitched against college teams the more I thought about what was possible to be done with a baseball. I left Carlisle and played with another college and began to see more and more in the game.

"Before I had completed my college course the Athletics wanted me and I was just as anxious to pitch for them as they were to get me. I studied the older pitchers and watched them work and managed to stick to the job."

Centlivre Captain Opens the Week With Some Good Bowling.

SCHEDULE TONIGHT.

Heidelbergs and Magnolias.

George Harkenrider, captain of the Centlivre team of the First Brunswick Bowling league, opened the week with some fancy work on the drives and by tabbing 226 in his final effort he made an average of 206 for the series. He also doubled in the second game. The Brewers won the series but the Walkovers took the second game and made the best total of the three games.

"Chick" Carr broke in with 212 in his second game and his work went a long ways in keeping his club from getting a coat of calcimine. Fred Bartels rolled in the second and third games and got the average. The scores follow:

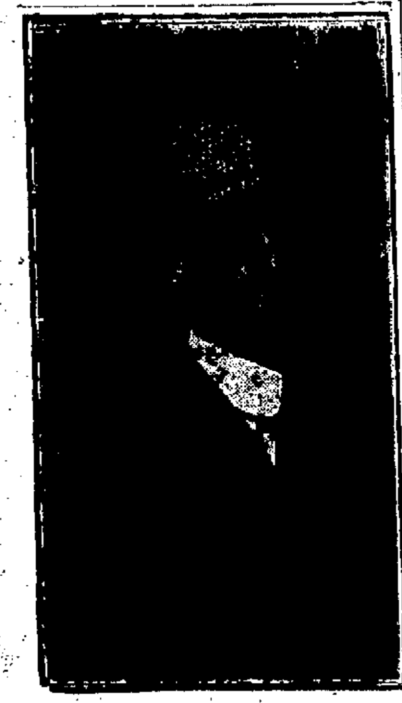
Glenn Curtiss as a Champion

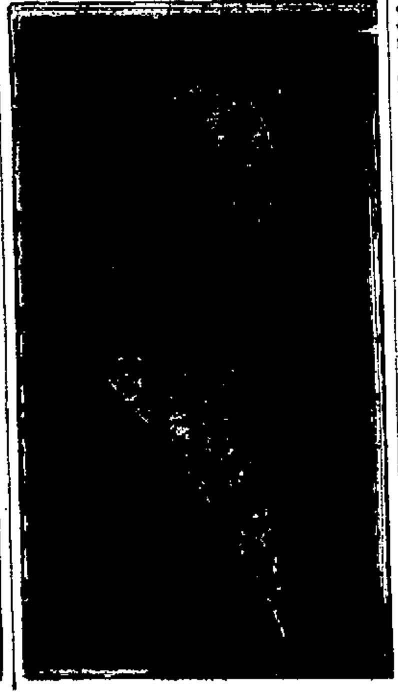
While Glenn H. Curtiss, who with his airships and birdmen come here at the end of the week is most known to the public as an aviator, he has another world's record to his credit which is liable to stand for a long time. It is having made the fastest mile ever traveled by a human being except, perhaps, some unfortunate individual who was dropped over a cliff and did not live to tell of it.

At Ormond Beach, Florida, in 1906, he traveled a mile in 26 2-5 seconds. This feat, since termed the "famous Curtiss mile," was accomplished with a motor cycle equipped with a 40 horse power motor. Curtiss was exclusively in the motor cycle business at that time and he wanted a record for his machine that would stand. There was nobody he could trust to make the record but himself, and he started out to set a figure that would keep the makers of world's records busy for some time.



CHARLES F. WILLARD,

Curtiss Aviator With the Airship Flights Here This Week.



J. C. MARS,

Curtiss Aviator Who is With the Glenn W. Curtiss Flyers.

His machine was in a class by itself and he simply went after the mile record and got it without any qualifications. It is the record. It has stood for four years and there is apparently no likelihood of lowering it. He had a flying start and when he crossed the line at the beginning of the mile straight-away, he was going so fast that if the machine had possessed very small planes it would have flown. He was over the finish almost before the timers were ready for him, and he had to travel another mile before he could slow up.

Curtiss does not look like an athlete, but he is one. He is a tall, apparently loose-jointed fellow, very quiet and not seemingly quick in his movements; but he has the natural adaptability and resourcefulness of the trained athlete and he has the nerve to take chances; always taking them, however, with his eyes wide open.

One of his friends who saw the first flights of the new classic "June Bug," Curtiss' first flying machine, at Hammondsport, said that there was one piece of ground the machine had to cross in flying over the experimental grounds where the real flying was done. This was over a vineyard and he said there was always an upward current of air there so that in crossing it, the machine invariably put up her nose and began to climb. He said he had seen Curtiss often leave his seat and crawl out on the forward rudder and hold it down till this spot was passed and then climb back to his seat.

That is just a sample of the nerve that an aviator has always to be willing to display, but there is a difference between willingness to do it and the ability not only to do it but to see when it is necessary. Curtiss says he never takes chances, and that probably is true in a way. He admits that he sometimes does hazardous things but he says that when he does them they are necessary and therefore are not chances.

PICKED FOR THE SECOND GAME

HARRY CORNS THIRD BATTER OF THE PITCHERS

Looks Like Good Outfield Prospect for the Team of 1911.

Harry Corns looks like a good outfield prospect for next season and in event his pitching arm should go back on him in the spring he may get a chance to plug up the hole left by the release of Claire Patterson in the first place and later by the fact that Grover Reddin did not live up to his reputation as a slugger.

The Fort Wayne sidewheeler played in thirty-four games last year and quit with a batting average of .264. This gave him third place among the pitchers of the league in batting, as Kenworthy was above the .300 mark and Frederick Cyclone Alberts developed more prowess with the stick than he had ever shown in his seven years in the Central league.

Corns is fast, he can hit and bunt but is a little weak on the bases. He is always in condition, takes good care of himself, is a hard worker, and would soon overcome this weakness. He has plenty of speed and constant practice would soon enable him to steal bags and slide. He is awkward going into the bags but this is because he has never been properly coached and has not had the experience needed to make him a good base runner.

He is a left-handed hitter and can cover the ground in the outfield and the fact that he has never made an earnest try for the place in the outer works is due in a great measure to his modesty. He has frequently been urged to give up pitching and play the outfield, but has always contended that he did not want to take another man's job away from him.

There is, however, another element to be considered in the matter. Corns was not strong enough the first of the year, but he improved as the season got older and pitched good ball from the middle of July to the close, although he worked in hard luck all of the time and lost some games in which he was not hit as hard as the opposing hurler.

Jimmy Burke told him at the close of the season that if he would apply himself to the art of base running he would make a good outfielder and he may take this advice. He is a good man to have on a team as he is easy to handle and always works to the best interests of his club.

HUDSON FLYER HERE.

Second Machine of the Curtiss Flock in City.

The Hudson Flyer, which is the second of the Glenn Curtis flock of aeroplanes to arrive in the city, got here this morning in charge of "Cy" Ammons and will be set up at once at the Driving park in preparation for the exhibitions Saturday and Sunday.

This is the machine in which Curtiss flew from Albany to New York, a distance of 137 miles in a hundred and fifty-two minutes and in which he made the trip from Cleveland to Cedar point in seventy-eight minutes, covering a distance of 73 miles.

It develops sixty-five horse power, is an eight-cylinder machine and will be manned by Aviator J. C. Mars in the Fort Wayne exhibitions.

SCARLET FEVER IN COUNTY.

Five cases of scarlet fever among children, near Zanesville, have been reported to Dr. Van Buskirk, county health officer, and Sanitary Officer William Westenfelt left today to investigate them.

Tidbits of Sporting News

Fielder Jones is spoken of as the probable successor to John O'Connor, manager of the St. Louis Browns.

Lou Criger's health has been so poor during the last season that it will likely force him out of the major leagues.

Stanislaus Kiecal is the name under which Stanley Ketchal was christened, but it was a bit too cumbersom for the prize ring.

Nick Maddox, formerly a member of the Wheeling team, pitched there Sunday against a club organized to meet the Pittsburg barnstormers.

According to unofficial figures the American league has outdrawn the National league this season. To date the figures stand, American league, 3,500,000; National league, 2,950,000.

The best young pitchers picked up by American league clubs late this year appear to be Nelson, of the St. Louis Browns; Blanding, of the Naps, and Russell, of the Athletics.

Johnny Evers wanted to go to Philadelphia to see the first and second games of the world's series, but his physicians would not permit him to make the trip.

The custom of placing a wreath of flowers on the grave of Harry Pulliam, former president of the National league, was preserved at Louisville yesterday. This is to be done the first day of the world's series every year.

President Farrell, of the New York club, still has a lease on the park in Athens, Ga., for two years, but these grounds probably will be sublet to an Eastern league or American association club.

Larry Lejuene evidently didn't fill in his engagement at Chicago Sunday, where he was booked with a semi-pro team. He caught in part of a game at Rockport, Ind., relieving Dick Grefe, of the Evansville team.

Bob Wells, of the South Bend team, has a saddle horse that he has taught to tell his age, do a cake walk and a number of other tricks and any time things get dull in base ball Bob can hit the fair circuit with his thoroughbred.

According to a report emanating from New York, George Stallings will return to the Buffalo eastern leaguers to resume his managerial role there, which he laid aside to take up his duties as manager of the New York Highlanders, from which position he was deposed because of the Chase scandal.

Maladies
Mankind Mastered

DR. MORELAND

A TRUE SPECIALIST

Has had many years of experience in curing chronic diseases of mankind. Owing to my fine success, and desiring to increase my field of usefulness, I want every one afflicted to investigate my system of treatment, and invite in particular all who have been treated elsewhere without success, and all those whose cases have been abandoned by family physicians and so-called experts.

I WILL EXPLAIN TO YOU WHY

Such treatment has not cured you, and will demonstrate to your entire satisfaction, that I can cure you safely, providing your case is accepted for treatment.

My Counsel Will Cost You Nothing

And my charges will not be more than you will be willing to pay fot the benefit conferred. I will do by you as I would have you do by me, if our cases were reversed.

Certainty of Cure is What You Want.

I can cite you to many of the best citizens of this city and surrounding country whom I have cured and made happy.

You Should Consult a Competent Physician

One in whom you may confide, one who makes chronic and obstinate diseases his study and practice, and who has the equipment of appliances and experience to render you the best service that professional skill in this twentieth century can furnish.

NERVOUS DISORDERS

Conditions brought on through misfortune, ignorance or overwork are nothing to be ashamed of; the disgrace attaches in allowing one's self to longer remain in them; it is also well to remember that

"An Evil Tree Cannot Bring Forth Good Fruit."

So an evil life, vicious habits and hereditary diseases cast their shadows before them, and now, as in the days of David,

A MAN'S SUCCESS DEPENDS UPON HIS STRENGTH AND VITALITY.

Diseases of the Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, Heart, Bowels and Rheumatism receive my special consideration and are successfully treated.

Piles, Fistula, Ulcers and all diseases of the Rectum permanently cured without the knife.

DISEASES OF WOMEN

Inflammation, Ulcerative Misplacements, Falling of the Womb and Leucorrhoea cured without any disagreeable treatment or cutting.

Blood Poison

My special treatment goes to the very bottom of this disease and forces out all impurities. The blood the tissues, the flesh, the bones and the whole system are cleansed, purified and restored to good condition.

I Cure Rupture Without an Operation

No inconvenience or detention from business. My method, unlike others, is safe, certain and speedy. Age, sex or condition of case make no difference in its results. Many years of practice have enabled me to acquire so thorough a knowledge of this specialty that I am able in every case to make the offer of a guaranteed cure.

LUMBAGO FOLLOWS THE GRIP

Patient Suffered for Three Years With Pains in the Back.

When Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Were Tried the Pains Left Gradually and Before Long She Was Entirely Cured.

Lumbago is a form of muscular rheumatism, and Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which have been so successful in the treatment of various forms of rheumatism, have cured striking cases of this trouble.

Mrs. Louisa Lockard, of 1055 W. Main street, Madison, Ind., who was cured by this treatment, says:

"After a severe attack of the grip I was left with lumbago and suffered with it for three years. I had sharp, shooting pains through my right side and arm and at times could not lift my arm. I was subject to these pains every winter for three years and then the pains went to my back and I could not move nor bear to have anything touch me. I become so bad that I was confined to my bed a great deal and was almost helpless for two weeks. My stomach was also in bad condition and I was very nervous.

"I was under the care of local doctors and for a time they helped me but each attack would be worse than the one before. The doctors finally said I had lumbago and that my system was full of uric acid. Through the advice of a friend I began to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. A few boxes helped me. The pains gradually left me and I could get around again. My stomach was better and I could sleep well without having any nervous spells. It wasn't long before I was entirely cured."

If you are interested in the remedy that cured Mrs. Lockard, write today for a copy of the new edition of our book on "Diseases of the Blood." It contains information that may save you money and suffering.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

Want a stove that will put all the heat in the house instead of up the chimney?

SEEKING INDICTMENT TO ESCAPE A TRIAL

Man at Terre Haute Works Unique Plan to Keep Out of Illinois.

Terre Haute, Ind., Oct. 18.—One of the most extraordinary coups ever planned by a criminal lawyer is being worked out at Terre Haute in an effort to prevent the extradition of Jacob R. Finkelstein, president of the Greenberg Iron company, to Sangamon county, Illinois, where he is charged with bribery.

An effort is being made to have Finkelstein indicted here on evidence brought out by State's Attorney Edmund Burke before the Sangamon county grand jury, in order that Gov. Marshall may have ground for a refusal to grant extradition.

Finkelstein is of some prominence politically here, and has engaged as his lawyers three of the leading firms of the city, who are powerful in both the democratic and republican camps. He is, furthermore, personally popular and financially influential. For all of which reasons he would prefer to take his chances with the local case, the local prosecutor and a local jury, if the case should ever get to a petit jury, rather than face State's Attorney Burke with his awe inspiring record of graft exposures, and his case ribbed with documentary evidence.

Prosecutor Refuses to Act.

It is said that one of Finkelstein's lawyers, a democratic politician of note, approached Albert Owens, prosecutor of Vigo county, with the proposition for the indictment of his client, but Owens, in spite of alluring offers of political support in the coming election, at which he is a candidate, refused after consultation with friends, to be a party to it.

Plans are understood to be under way to act through members of the grand jury and have that body, as is its right, go over the head of the prosecutor and return the indictment of its own volition.

The scheme is to have the indictment returned on the evidence of David Nichols, road commissioner of Anderson township, Clark county, who told Mr. Burke last week that Finkelstein, in order to get an order for the corrugated iron culverts which he manufactures, paid his expenses to Terre Haute and a commission of $3.50. The commission, he said, he divided with his fellow commissioners, William Fetters and John Morgan, so that each of them received $1.16.

How Illinois Case Started.

Mr. Finkelstein got into the clutches of State's Attorney Burke through his activities at the state fair at Springfield. He sold between seven and eight thousand dollars worth of culverts and similar material to township officials during the fair, completely outdistancing his competitors.

The game was exposed by W. G. Koch, highway commissioner of Adams county, who gave an order for $160 worth of culverts, but asked to be paid "his bit" by check instead of cash, and when Mr. Finkelstein obliged him, promptly went before Mr. Burke with his story. The alleged bribe check was for $32.50, Mr. Koch being far above the $1.16 grade.

The grand jury was not in session and a warrant was issued, but not quick enough to catch Mr. Finkelstein. He was not able to take away with him, however, the records of the Ridgley National bank of Springfield, which indicated that at the opening of fair week he had opened a personal account and drawn on it to the extent of $2,500 in cash during the five days of the fair.

Highway Officers as Witnesses.

When the grand jury reconvened, a number of the highway commissioners who were known to have purchased culverts were subpoenaed, and all told the same story of receiving "commission" on the goods bought by them for the public. Among these was Nichols, who told of having had dealing previously with Finkelstein and receiving his "commission" at Terre Haute, and his story was seized upon by the shrewd attorneys in this city as a possible means of keeping their client out of Illinois.

Among Mr. Finkelstein's legal staff are Ex-Judge James E. Piety, republican; Lamb, Beasley, Douthitt and Crawford, the senior member of which firm is John E. Lamb, an ex-congressman, and recent democratic candidate for United States senator, and Foley, Royse and O'Mara. Foley being city attorney, democratic chairman of this congressional district and close personal friend of Governor Marshall.

Finkelstein, himself, is a chum of James Watson, former whip of the house of representatives and late republican candidate for governor. Lawyers of similar prominence have been hired in Springfield and Bloomington.

When you think of Furniture or Carpets, think of Fosters. Most Fort Wayne people do. New comers to our city, wanting reliable, well made goods, at the lowest possible prices should remember that the entrance to our store is on Court street, opposite the east entrance to the Court House.

While riding his bicycle on Calhoun street between Creighton and Taber avenues, Monday evening, Canillus Rohyans, 21 years old, of 2725 Calhoun street, a machinist in the Pennsylvania shops, was thrown from his wheel, which struck a pile of sand, and suffered a fracture of his left arm.

GIVEN A SURPRISE ON ANNIVERSARY OF WEDDING

Wayne Street M. E. Church Honors Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Travis.

Members and friends of Wayne street M. E. church to the number of several hundred perpetrated a completely successful and thoroughly enjoyable surprise upon the pastor, Rev. C. Claude Travis, and his wife, Monday evening in observance of the tenth anniversary of the wedding of Rev. and Mrs. Travis.

No hint of the impending event had been permitted to reach either the pastor or his wife until the arrival of a handsome bouquet of American Beauty roses, the gift of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Wilt, which was supplemented a little later by the large party of friends who stormed the parsonage and escorted the pastor and his wife to the lecture room of the church, where congratulations were showered upon them. There was an informal musical program and H. B. Hunt spoke happily for the congregation in an expression of congratulation, to which Rev. Mr. Travis responded. There were numerous gifts of aluminum ware and similar utensils emblematic of the "tin" wedding anniversary, and refreshments were served. The event was one of the most delightful social affairs in the history of the Wayne street congregation.

WANTS HIS OLD COMRADES TO READ THIS.

S. C. Murphy, Fort Wayne, Ind., a veteran of the civil war, desires his old comrades to know the contents of this letter. "For three or four years I have suffered from kidney trouble. My back ached severely and I had to get up frequently at night and was very dizzy upon arising in the morning. The black spots before my eyes made me imagine they were flies. I was recommended to try Foley Kidney Pills and the results were immediate. The pain left my back, I had no more dizziness, my kidney action was normal and I attribute my cure to the sole use of Foley Kidney Pills." Dreier Bros.

STREET CAR DERAILED.

Coach on Lewis Street Line Crashes Into Sidewalk—Several Hurt.

One passenger, named Emrich, was slightly injured, a woman fainted and a score of other passengers were badly frightened when a westbound Lewis street car jumped the track near Gay street Monday night and made a wild dash which ended with the front end of the car on the sidewalk. Emrich received a slight cut on the hand from the broken glass of a shattered window. The woman who fainted, whose name was not learned, had a small baby in her arms, and a passenger caught the baby as she was falling. A shade tree six inches in diameter was in the path of the car and was torn up by the roots. A fender was broken on the front of the car and the glass in the front vestibule shattered, but the car was able to proceed on the run when the wrecking crew got it back on the rails.

adopted. Quite a number of the copies of this paper, the People's Press, have been received by mail by the convention ladies during their presence in this city. These ladies never ordered them and they considered the sending of the publication to them an insult.

Many Reports Made.

Most of the time of the forenoon session today was taken up with disposing of unfinished business and listening to reports made by the various state departments. Probably the most interesting was that on Sabbath observance, made by Mrs. Kate Wert Heller, of South Bend. The report showed the number of sermons during the year on Sabbath observance, the literature on that question distributed and other facts. The Sabbath observance banner was presented to St. Joseph county.

It was expected that the appointment of delegates to the national convention of the W. C. T. U., which meets at Baltimore November 12 to 17, would be announced at the forenoon session, but the delegates had not all been selected and the rush of unfinished business delayed this matter until the afternoon session.

For this purpose the state was divided into county groups, and each of these groups was entitled to one delegate, each five hundred members being allowed one delegate. The only counties in the state that had a membership sufficiently large to secure separate delegates were Grant and Marion. Grant county has 1,000 W. C. T. U. members.

Retires as Secretary.

Mrs. Louis G. Comstock, the "Y" secretary of the state association, one of the branches known as the Young Women's Christian Temperance Union, retires this year as "Y" secretary, having been called to another state to engage in her personal work. Her home has been at Converse and she has been one of the efficient and active workers of the temperance cause in Indiana for years. She was the chairman of the committee on resolutions this year. She did not leave for her home Monday, as The Sentinel stated yesterday. "The report of the committee on resolutions was made by Mrs. F. B. Perkins and," she said to the reporter, "was made to the convention because she could do it so much better than I could. Please correct the statement that I was called home yesterday."

Afternoon Session.

The afternoon sessions were opened at 1:30 o'clock with the vice president, Mrs. Stanley, in the chair, and some time was taken up with delayed reports of the different departments, crowded out of their order by other pressing business.

The sermonette of the convention was delivered by Mrs. Mattie Cammack-Gibson, a discourse that was interesting. The address of the afternoon was by Mrs. E. L. Calkins, the president of the Michigan State W. C. T. U. Mrs. Calkins was formerly an active W. C. T. U. woman in Indiana.

North Indiana Day.

Today was North Indiana day with the convention and at the afternoon session they showed their strength by the delegates of the different Twelfth district counties marching up the aisles and passing over the platform. There were a host of them and the president introduced the county presidents and the chairmen of different local committees. There were a host of them and during this interesting exercise a bouquet was presented to Mrs. W. G. Hunter, the chairman of the city transportation committee, who did such excellent work during the convention.

The "Message" Editor.

At the meeting of the executive committee Mrs. Louella F. McWhirter, of Indianapolis, was re-elected for another year as the editor of "The Message," a position she has efficiently filled for several years. "The Message" is the state organ of the W. C. T. U. Mrs. McWhirter was formerly state president of the association and is one of the best platform speakers in Indiana among the temperance women. She was called home late Saturday afternoon by serious illness. Her husband is a banker at Indianapolis.

Youthful Organist.

One of the features of the exercises of the convention last evening was the playing on the big church pipe organ by Miss Jessie Arlene Stuckman, of Nappanee, a young miss only six years of age, the daughter of Mrs. Jesse Stuckman, who is a music teacher at Nappanee. The little miss handled the big pipe organ handsomely and won great applause.

PROMINENT IN THE WORK

Are the Women Who Head the State W. C. T. U.

The newly elected officers of the state W. C. T. U., elected at the state convention, the sessions of which closed in this city this afternoon, are women who are well known in temperance circles throughout the state, all cultured women and some of them long engaged in reform and philanthropic work.

Mrs. Culla J. Vayhinger, the state president, resides at Upland. Her husband, Dr. Vayhinger, is the president of the Taylor university, located at that place. She was formerly a school teacher and before moving to Upland resided at Moore's Hill. For seven years she has been state president of the W. C. T. U. As a presiding officer she cannot be excelled in the ranks of womanhood. She rules a convention with a firm, but gentle hand, and no matter how perplexing the situation knows the right thing to do. Her queenly personality has won her a state wide affection with the W. C. T. U. women.

Mrs. Elizabeth T. Stanley is the wife of a physician residing at Liberty, and she is a home-body, although her work as a state lecturer calls her away from home much of the time. She is a southern woman, having for years resided in the states south of the Mason and Dixon line. One can tell that by the peculiar twang that she gives to many of her words. She has lectured on temperance for years, in almost every state in the union and is among the very best.

As illustrative of the kind of a platform speaker that Mrs. Stanley is Mrs. Vayhinger tells this story: Early one forenoon the present state W. C. T. U. president was changing cars at a cross-road town to reach her home, and while waiting at the station for her train heard two men, evidently railroad section men, she said, when she heard them talking about a woman who had delivered a temperance address in the town church the evening before.

"I tell you," said one of them, "she beat any man I ever heard. She could speak all right and she kept the crowd going some."

"I found afterwards that the woman who spoke in that town that night was Mrs. Stanley."

Mrs. Rose Pearce, the state recording secretary, has her home at Darlington. Her husband is the Methodist minister at the place, being a member of the Indiana conference. She has held her office for some years and is efficient in it. Although delivering a practical address she is not what might be denominated a platform speaker. She is, however, a most graceful and interesting writer and many of her literary efforts have attracted wide notice.

Two of the state officers, Miss Mary E. Woodward, the corresponding secretary, and Miss Clara M. Sears, the treasurer, are young ladies. Miss Woodward is a school teacher and resides at Fountain City. The home of Miss Sears is at Anderson, where she is engaged in the work of a stenographer in the insurance office of her brother. Both are active in the temperance work and both can speak interestingly.

FAVOR COUNTY OPTION.

W. C. T. U. Women Opposed to the Repeal of the Law.

"Although no declaration to that effect was made in our resolutions adopted Monday afternoon," said Mrs. Julia Overman, the state superintendent of the medal contest department of the W. C. T. U. "the women of our union, I think, without exception, are warm friends of the county option law as it at present stands on the Indiana statute books and are opposed to its repeal.

"Under its workings great good has been done. It has proven so in our county and in other counties. Of course, there will be 'blind tigers' as long as whisky is made men habituated intemperately to the use of intoxicating liquor will get it in some way if they have the money, if they have to go a thousand miles to get it. The great good in not having saloons in our midst comes from the fact that men who only drink to be sociable become abstainers and young men are not recruited for the saloon with every passing day. A score of 'blind tigers' do not do the harmful work that one saloon does.

"In the county option campaigns waged in the state during the last few years the W. C. T. U. women were the most earnest and active workers. No sir, they want the present county option law to stand until state-wide prohibition is secured. That is their bugle cry and what they are hoping to secure."

Visit Biscuit Company.

After the adjournment of the convention Monday afternoon the delegates, accepting the invitation of the managers, visited the Perfection Biscuit company and were shown through the factory. A delightful lunch was served to them there. The march, with over 500 ladies in line, was made through the streets from the convention church to the factory and the ladies with flags, banners and badges presented a grand sight in their marching.

DEPARTMENT WORK.

Shown in Interesting Way at Evening Session.

The exercises at the church Monday evening were intended more particularly to show the department work of the state organization, demonstrations being by the state superintendents by collections exhibited in the front part of the church, all of which were told about by the superintendents.

Esther Nelson Karn, the chairman of the Mercy department of the Allen County W. C. T. U., favored the audience with the recitation of her original poems and, under the direction of Mrs. N. W. Bloom, the physical culture drill class presented their line of drills. The church was crowded, as has been the case with all the night meetings.

THE SHOP AND RAIL NEWS

HIGH RAILWAY OFFICIALS HERE

Heads of Pennsylvania, Wabash and G. R. & I. Visit City.

TRACK ELEVATION WORK INSPECTED

Plans for Depot and Freight House Also Receive Attention.

The officials of three of Fort Wayne's most important railways were in the city today. President F. A. Delano, of the Wabash, and his staff of assistants are out on the fall inspection trip; General Manager G. L. Peck and some of the transportation, motive power and maintenance-of-way officials were here to confer with the local officials on matters connected with track elevation, new depot and other improvements now under way, and Vice President and General Manager J. H. P. Hughart, of the G. R. & I., stopped off a few moments to confer with the local officials on business matters while on his way from Cincinnati to Grand Rapids.

Discussed the Improvements.

With General Manager G. L. Peck, of the Pennsylvania, were General Superintendent A. M. Schoyer; H. L. H. Blair, assistant to the general manager; D. F. Crawford, general motive power superintendent, and W. E. Perry, of the general engineer's office. They came in on a special train which arrived here about 4 o'clock and during the entire morning were in Supt. McKim's office, looking over drawings and discussing matters with Mr. McKim, Division Engineer F. M. Graham and Supt. of Motive Power T. W. Demarest pertaining to the improvements now in progress and some that are to be entered upon next summer. Concerning the visit, Supt. J. B. McKim said it had no special significance. The party left for Pittsburg on a special train at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon.

General Fall Inspection.

The special train bearing the Wabash officials arrived in the city at 11 o'clock and left at 12. In the party were: F. A. Delano, president; Henry Miller, vice-president and general manager; W. C. Maxwell, general traffic manager; George O. Yeomans, assistant to president; S. E. Cotter, general superintendent; A. C. Cunningham, chief engineer; T. Frier, purchasing agent; E. F. Needham, superintendent locomotive and car department; J. D. McNamara, general passenger agent; C. H. Stinson, general freight agent; E. R. Newman, assistant general freight agent; F. H. Tristram, assistant general passenger agent; H. E. Watts, assistant general freight agent; H. G. Holden, assistant general freight agent; W. H. Wylie, assistant general freight agent; D. I. Forsyth, superintendent transportation; G. C. Kinsman, superintendent telegraph; J. C. Sullivan, division superintendent; F. W. Smith, master mechanic; Division Freight Agent W. S. Sprott, Chief Claim Agent C. H. Newton, Trainmaster C. E. Wells and W. S. Danes, engineer of maintenance-of-way.

President Delano, in conversation with a Sentinel representative, expressed surprise and displeasure at the progress made in track elevation work at Calhoun street. He said he hoped to see it completed before cold weather set in. Concerning the plans of the Wabash for depot and freight house, President Delano said:

"The work of separating the grades at Calhoun street and attending changes and improvements have cost more than we anticipated. We cannot, therefore, for want of means, erect a depot commensurate with the importance of the city for awhile and must be content with the old building, which we are having fitted up as good as possible. We contemplate the erection of a freight house, or rather a continuation of the old building to the west about 200 feet and to provide a sufficient number of tracks leading to it. This will necessitate a retaining wall between the house tracks and the elevated main tracks and we will get at this work soon. The east sixty feet of the present building, which cannot be reached by street, will be a store house."

TALKS ABOUT PRINTING PLATES

B. J. Griswold Delivers Opening Lecture for Electros.

This evening the Electro-Technic club will open the 1910-1911 lecture course with a lecture by B. J. Griswold on "Printing Plates and How They are Made." The club management is real anxious to have a big attendance this evening and the interest taken in the lecture, as indicated by what is heard about the shops, presages a realization of this hope. Readers of newspapers have no idea of the manner in which they are produced and Mr. Griswold is going to demonstrate the method of making them by a lot of stereopticon views and words. The full program for the lecture season will be given publicity in a few days.

ROLLED BY JOURNAL BOX.

Brakeman H. McNamara Painfully Hurt at Warsaw.

H. McNamara, aged twenty-one years, a Pennsylvania brakeman, fell in alighting from a car at Warsaw yesterday at 9:30 o'clock and was struck and rolled a distance by the journal box of the following car. He was bruised and cut about the hips and when picked up it was feared he was fatally hurt, but at the St. Joseph hospital, where he is now confined, it developed that his injuries consist of a badly bruised and possibly slightly fractured hip and several contusions on the body. He will recover.

CHANGE IN BOWSER SALESMEN.

Yesterday's Grand Rapids Herald published the following concerning men in the sales department of S. F. Bowser & Company: "S. A. Collins, district salesman for the Bowser company of Fort Wayne, makers of Bowser gasoline tanks and piping system, dropped in yesterday and announced that he wouldn't come again for he has been appointed manager of the Buffalo, N. Y. office and leaves at once to take up his new duties. George H. Schnable, of Grand Rapids will succeed Mr. Collins as representative in this district and while local auto dealers hate to see the old timer go, they are glad to know that Mr. Schnable is to take his place."

GONE TO FATHER'S FUNERAL.

Frank E. Aiken, jr., of the claims department of the Pennsylvania, left at noon today for New York, where he will attend the funeral of his father, Frank E. Aiken, who died in that city rather suddenly yesterday morning. The deceased was an old-time actor and was at various times connected with some of the leading theatrical companies of the country. Two years ago he was a member of John Drew's company which appeared at the Majestic in this city. A few days ago Mr. Aiken received a letter stating that his father was suffering slightly from a cold. The only other news concerning the sick man received here was the notice of his death.

ON EDUCATIONAL TRIP.

A party of young men connected with the maintenance-of-way department of the Pennsylvania lines east of Pittsburg are making a trip over some of the lines of the Northwest and Southwest systems. They left Pittsburg yesterday and by a circuitous route which touched Cleveland reached Crestline last night and were taken to Bucyrus, where they remained over night. This morning they left for Columbus. The object of the trip is to give opportunity for the study of matters connected with the maintenance-of-way departmet of the railway system west of Pittsburg.

ENGINE ORDER NEARLY FINISHED.

The order for twenty-five new locomotives placed some time ago with the American Locomotive company, at Pittsburg, will be completed in a short time. At present there are only three boilers to finish on the order and the erecting shop has only eight of the engines to finish and work upon most of these is nearly completed. E. E. Dildine, general foreman of the erecting shop, has been at the Pittsburg works ever since the commencement of work on this order for engines and will remain there until it is finished.

RETURNS FROM EASTERN TRIP.

Crawford Griswald, the retired maintenance of way official of the Pennsylvania, has returned to the city, after spending a month in the east. He was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Grace Griswold. They spent the greater portion of the time at New York and Atlantic City.

INJURED MEN RECOVER.

O. Groves, hurt two weeks ago, and J. J. Moser, hurt a week ago, have recovered and resumed work in the Pennsylvania boiler shop this morning. H. C. Hartman, a cab builder, who had a foot hurt September 22, was also able to resume work in the shops this morning.

HAD FINGER RIPPED OPEN.

Frank Meyers, whose duty is to put the jackets on locomotives at the Pennsylvania shops, had the inner side of one of his fingers ripped open this morning when it was caught by the ragged edge of a piece of jacket metal he was handling. He will be off duty a few days.

PENNSY'S N. Y. STATION.

Bulletins announce that the Pennsylvania's new station in New York city will be formally open to business, "with an all-steel through train service from and to the west," on Thursday, October 27. This magnificent station was described by The Sentinel some weeks ago.

RETURNS TO OLD POSITION.

William H. Holsworth is again a member of J. H. Hebrock's force in the Pennsylvania shop clerk's office. He worked there three years and two months ago resigned and tookk a position at Bowser's. This morning he returned to his old place.

FINGER BADLY CUT.

While handling a side rod which was still in the "rough," F. B. Geoglein, of the Pennsylvania machine shop, had the inner side of one of his fingers cut to the bone by the ragged edge of the piece. He is off duty for awhile.

WILL BE A MOTORMAN.

R. Grear, a flue welder at the Pennsylvania shops for several months, resigned this morning. He has taken employment as a motorman with the Fort Wayne and Wabash Valley Traction company, city lines.

RETURN FROM ALLEGHENY.

Assistant Master Mechanic E. E. Greist and W. B. Madara, of the Pennsylvania shops, have returned from Allegheny, where business for the company called them several days ago.

G. R. & I. PAY CAR.

Notice of the coming of the G. R. & I. paymaster was received at the local offices this morning and bulletined later. He will arrive in Fort Wayne next Thursdray.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

C. E. Sessford is a new flue welder at the Pennsylvania shops.

A. J. Schirmeyer, A. Hettler and R. W. Shaw, Pennsylvania shopmen, are sick and off duty.

E. B. Baker, of the Pennsylvania blacksmith shop, will go to Chicago next Friday to see the ball games.

H. C. Walda, a painter at the Pennsylvania shops, who was taken sick three weeks ago, was able to resume work this morning.

L. E. Newson, of Indianapolis, traveling freight agent for the Lackawanna, was in the city yesterday calling on shippers.

August W. Horstmeyer, a passenger car builder, and John Elotrowski and W. Ciran, car repairmen, took employment at the Pennsylvania car shops this morning.

Twelve railroads, all of the lines entering Toledo, now use the Union depot in that city and there are now 172 trains handled daily there. The Wabash is included in the list.

Conductor W. H. Grout of the G. R. & I. and Mrs. Grout will leave for New York state on Nickel Plate train No. 4 at 3 o'clock this evening. They will visit his parents and be gone about two weeks.

John B. Lopshire, formerly employed at Kerr Murray's shops, and Walter C. Cramer, a farmer boy, residing near New Haven, took employment in the Pennsylvania erecting shop this morning.

Machinist Ed White has returned from a visit with friends in Chicago.

Gus Roebke, an enthusiastic base ball man, will go to Chicago Friday to the world's series games. There may be a number of other "fans" from the shops go also.

W. E. Dartnell, connected with the comptroller's office of the Pennsylvania, was in the city several hours today. Mr. Dartnell spent several years in the shop clerk's and later the motive power offices of the Pennsylvania in this city.

C. A. Melin, western passenger agent of the Nickel Plate, headquarters at Denver, is calling on relatives and old friends in this part of the country. He was here yesterday and will return Sunday to join Traveling Passenger Agent F. P. Parnin on the trip to Kansas City to attend the annual meeting of Nickel Plate passenger agents.

LUCK AVERTS A WRECK.

Another Trolley Crew Overruns Orders and is Discharged.

It has just come to light that nearly a week ago another Fort Wayne and Wabash Valley interurban crew overran its orders, and that only by good fortune was a bad wreck averted near Logansport. Both motorman and conductor were promptly discharged.

The eastbound crew had orders to meet another car at a specified siding. Reaching the siding a line car standing there was mistaken for the car with which the meeting order was given and the run was continued eastward. Fortunately the westbound car was behind time and stopped at Pottawatomie Point, a few miles east, for orders. This gave the dispatcher opportunity to order the car in the siding until the crew at fault reached the spot. Then they were ordered to report to the superintendent in Fort Wayne, and their discharge followed.

See the two Mission Dining Room Suits in Foster's window around on Clinton street. One eight piece suit to match, $38; the other eight piece suit for $47.50. They are "beauts" for the price.

Earl Mensenberger has resigned his position as clerk at the Alt Heidelberg hotel and will go in business with his father, who conducts a hotel at Angola.

Let Me Tell You Something

A woman who is sick and suffering, and won't at least try a medicine which has the record of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, is to blame for her own wretched condition.

There are literally hundreds of thousands of women in the United States who have been benefited by this famous old remedy, which was produced from roots and herbs over thirty years ago by a woman to relieve woman's suffering.

Read what these women say:

Camden, N. J.—"It is with pleasure that I send my testimonial for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, hoping it may induce other suffering women to avail themselves of the benefit of this valuable remedy.

"I suffered from pains in my back and side, sick headaches, no appetite, was tired and nervous all the time, and so weak I could hardly stand. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman—and this valuable medicine shall always have my praise."—Mrs. W. P. Valentine, 902 Lincoln Ave., Camden, N. J.

Buffalo, N. Y.—"I am writing to tell you that I am pleased with your medicines. I had been sick for a long time with prolapsus. I heard about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I have found that it is the right kind of medicine for me. I felt relieved after taking one bottle and I kept on taking it till now I am well and strong, and am able to do my work."—Mrs. Henry Konsow, 472 Genesee St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, is it not fair to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had the virtue to help these women it will help any other woman who is suffering from the same trouble?

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

[illegible] If the slightest trouble appears which you do not understand, write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for her advice—it is free and always helpful.

Chicago Market.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 18.—A decrease in the European visible supply helped to give a bullish uptura to the wheat market today. The lessening of the amount of wheat in sight across the Atlantic was large when compared with the increase shown last week. At first, however, the tone of trading was weak, because of continued rains in Argentina and on account of reports that firmness at Liverpool was due to purchases by an American house. Some of the local interests appeared, notwithstanding, to be inclined to work for a rally and were soon successful. The opening was unchanged to ⅛c lower with December the same as last night to ⅛c off at 94⅛c. After selling at 93⅞@93⅞c the market advanced to 94⅛c.

Improved demand for corn caused a rally. December started a shade higher to ⅛@⅛c off at 45⅝c to 46⅛c and rose to 46⅝c.

Considerable commission selling made oats weak. December opened a shade to ⅛@⅛c down at 29⅞c to 30c, but reacted to 30⅛c.

In consequence of the hog run west being materially short of that of a year ago provisions gained some strength. First sales were a shade to 5c up, with January at $17.50 for pork, $10.62½ for lard, and $9.37½ for ribs.

STOCKS AND BONDS.

The Day on Wall Street.

New York, Oct. 18.—Stocks were pressed for sale in large volume to realize profit taking at the opening of the stock market today. Prices of the leading issues receded before these heavy offerings but there were sharp advances in some of the less prominent stocks. Southern Pacific declined 1 and Union Pacific, Great Northern preferred, Reading, United States Steel and Amalgamated Copper large fractions. Canadian Pacific rose 1⅝, the Texas Company 1¼ and National Lead 1.

A good deal of stock was put out and St. Paul, Missouri Pacific and several other stocks lost a point before the market steadied. The rebound restored prices pretty fully to yesterday's close and there were few stocks which showed strength. Canadian Pacific rose 3⅝.

The burden of profit taking sales plainly outweighed the new demand. The action of the market reflected none of the immediate news. United States Steel was advanced aggressively to 77, but met such a flood of offerings that it was forced back. The whole list yielded again in sympathy. Chesapeake & Ohio, Northwestern, Amalgamated Copper, Colorado Fuel and Pacific Mail lost 1 and St. Joseph and Grand Island first preferred 2, New York Central, Colorado & Southern and American Steel Foundries rose 1. The tone was steady and dull at noon. Bonds were easy.

The prices advanced moderately again on increased business. United States Steel, Southern Pacific and other favorite stocks rose to above last night, but did not hold. The Texas Company gained 3¼ and New York Central 1⅛.

Both New York Central and Pennsylvania were bid up, their rise reaching 1⅝ and 3 points, respectively. The prominent stocks otherwise were pretty much at a standstill.

The market closed irregular. The marking up of United States Steel, Reading and Union Pacific to a substantial fraction over last night's closing gave the whole list a firmer tone in the last hour. Those stocks rose to the highest of the day.

THE MONEY MARKET.

New York, Oct. 18.—Prime mercantile paper, 5½@6 per cent.

Sterling exchange, steady, at advance, with actual business in bankers' bills at 482.70@482.90 for sixty day bills, and at 486.25 for demand.

Mexican dollars, 45c.

Government bonds, strong.

Railroad bonds, easy.

Money on call, steady, at 3@3¼ per cent; ruling rate, 3 per cent; closing bid, 3 per cent; offered at 4¼ per cent.

Time loans, dull but strong; sixty days, 4¼ per cent, and ninety days, 4⅝@5 per cent; six months, 4⅝@4⅞ per cent.

WHITE FRUIT HOUSE

THREATEN SYMPATHY STRIKE.

Union Men in Iron Mountain Shops With Striking Machinists.

Little Rock, Ark., Oct. 13.—Practically every union employe in the shops of the Iron Mountain Railroad company here and at Sedalia, Mo., will walk out in sympathy with striking machinists unless the demands of the men are met by noon today, according to the strike leaders. About 4,000 will be affected.

It became known today that an ultimatum to this effect had been delivered to General Manager A. W. Sullivan, of the railroad. The strike of the machinists has been in progress since last May. They demand a nine-hour working-day.

I have high-class investments in Local Bonds and Local Stocks and Mortgage Loans. C. F. PFEIFFER, Shoaff Bldg.

"IT BEATS ALL."

This is quoted from a letter of M. Stockwell, Hannibal, Mo.: "I recently used Foley's Honey and Tar for the first time. To say I am pleased does not half express my feelings. It beats all the remedies I ever used. I contracted a bad cold and was threatened with pneumonia. The first doses gave great relief and one bottle completely cured me." Contains no opiates. Dreier Bros.

THIS picture is from a pastel portrait of a lady who wears a Parisian gown, fitting smoothly, showing to perfection the lines and curves of the beautiful figure given by the Redfern Corset, a model named for the great creator of Fashion.

Redfern Whalebone Corsets are our high-class models, the only corset we can warrant stayed with genuine Arctic Whalebone—a boning for which substitutes are daily invented, but which remain substitutes, not equalling in the slighest degree the shaping power of whalebone. We have received our new Redfern Models. Our saleswomen will cheerfully show them.

If its a good thing Seavey's have it

A POOR SAW Makes You Mad

It "binds" in the wood, takes a heap of muscle to move it and won't saw straight. Chews the wood, instead of sawing. Gets twisted out of shape, won't stay sharp and is a general nuisance.

Yet you pay almost as much for such a saw as you would for an

ATKINS SILVER STEEL SAW

Made of Silver Steel—better than you'll find in most razors. When you want to use it, you find it sharp, fast cutting and easy running. The Blade is tapered so it can't "bind" in the wood. Good tools are a good investment. They last and they always work.

We make a specialty of GOOD TOOLS. The prices aren't high, either. If you want the kind that will give you satisfaction, come to us.
